CARRIERS

The Aids to Navigation De-sired by the Lake Carriers' Association.

Widening of the Hay Lake Channel Is an Urgent Necessity.

A New Canal on St. Clair Flats Will Also be Recommended.

The officers of the Lake Carriers' association expect to get together at an early date to prepare a list of aids to navigation, which are considered essential to the interest of the lake trade, says the Marine Record.

Among the most important improvements which will be recommended to congress is the matter of widening Hay lake channel. The cut was made 200 feet wide in order that a navigable direct channel for vessels might be opened as soon as possible, but the engineers in charge of the surveys have always pointed out in their reports that there was space of 150 feet on each side which should be cut out in the future, as the needs of lake commerce demand a wider channel. It is now obvious that with three large locks at Sault Ste. Marie, the Hay lake cut will very soon be too narrow for the safe passage of vessels, and this is likely to be demonstrated in a manner very expensive to the insurance companies before the improvement can be completed. The cut is almost entirely through stone, and it would require some time to make the channel twice as wide as at present.

The association will also urge upon congress the necessity for better facilities at the foot of the St. Clair river. The St. Clair Flats canal is only 250 feet in width and through it must pass all the traffic to and from Lake Michigan, Lake Huron and Georgian bay, in addition to that between Lake Superior and the lower lakes, which alone taxes a channel 200 feet in width. An improvement of the St. Clair Flats canal has long been urged by the lake carriers, but has not yet met with the approval of congress. The plan of improvement which meets with most favor is to leave the canal stand as at present, and to construct a third pier bank 200 or 400 feet to the westward of the west bank, dredging the water in the new channel thus formed to the requisite depth. Regulations constituting on the up-bound, and the other down-bound channel might be enforced at any time by the lighthouse board.

The Lake Carriers will, in their next memorial, press the claims of two other very important light and fog signal stations, for which they have asked for a number of years. For which congress has each time seen fit to pass over. One of these is at Middle Island, one of the most dangerous localities on Lake Huron, and the other is at Crisp's Point, west of White Fish Point, Lake Superior. Life saving stations have been established at both of these places for some time, and the crews have done a great deal of important work, a convincing argument for the need of lights and fog signals to keep vessels off the rocks at these points.

The memorial address to congress last year refers to Middle Island as follows: "Middle Island is a low island lying near the west coast of Lake Huron, and is an important turning point for vessels. The shelter behind this island is very much used as a dangerous locality on the great lakes, a fact which can perhaps be most conclusively proved to your committee by the fact that the government has established not less than three life saving stations in the immediate vicinity. Vessels bound down Lake Superior in thick weather, and trying to round White Fish Point, need to locate their positions as accurately as possible before reaching the dangerous point itself. If they get at all out of their course to the southward, the shape of the land is such that they run aground on a dangerous shore. Many vessel masters consider this the most important light on the list, and a petition signed by a large number of vessel owners and masters for this light was filed with the lighthouse board last winter. The report of the life saving service shows thirteen strandings in the vicinity of Crisp's Point during the last ten years. It is believed that nearly all of these strandings could have been avoided if vessels bound down the lake had had a light and fog signal at Crisp's Point, eighteen miles west of White Fish Point, which would have enabled them to determine their proximity to this dangerous shore before the present light and signal at White Fish Point could be seen or heard."

WANTS A SCRAP.
J. H. Herman, of St. Paul, a hawker of Tommy Dixon, the featherweight of America, matched to fight George Dixon, champion of the world, was in the city Saturday afternoon. He went to fix up a match between his protégé, Charley Williams and Jimmy Murphy or Ed Sheppard. If a match is arranged he will bring up Tommy Dixon, who will agree to stop the best local fighter in six rounds.

SUPERIOR MAN DROWNED.
John Arthur, employed as a hawker in the Daisy mill, was drowned while in the mill dock in Superior. He was a good swimmer, and the cause of the accident is not known. The body was recovered and removed to an East End morgue.

BADLY DONE UP. Northern Pacifics Went Down Before the Duluths.

The Northern Pacifics who claimed to be the amateur champions of the state have had to lower their colors to the Duluths, who defeated them twice, once on Saturday to the tune of 14 to 5, the following being the score by innings:
Northern Pacifics, 9 0 1 4 0 0 0 0 5
Duluths, 1 4 0 5 1 1 2 0 14
In Saturday's game Chapman and Connors covered the points for the Duluth boys, Carroll played at second in place of Gerrard, who is laid up with a broken finger. Carroll's place at first was filled by Smith, a backup player who did fairly well. Chapman was in good form and struck out five men, giving two others bases on balls. The Northern Pacifics had seven men left on bases. Only three Duluth men struck out in this game, and the home team had ten men left on bases. The game was marked by some brilliant double plays on each side, although a wild throw by Fitch was the cause of the four runs which appear in the fourth inning.

In Sunday's game there was an immense crowd and the double umpire system was used. The Northern Pacific man, imported from St. Paul, to speak charitably, knew very little about the game and was miserably one-sided in his decisions, always favoring the visitors, while Halling, the other umpire, was fair and unbiased. Morris and Connors covered the points for Duluth on Sunday, and Peetham and Rinkles were the battery for the Northern Pacifics. Peetham is the crack twirler of the visitors and recently pitched a game for the Minneapolis league team against the Milwaukee team and defeated them badly, himself scoring three fine singles off the pitcher for the Brewers.

Yesterday's game was marked by some very brilliant fielding. Louche covering the best left field ever seen here. A home run by Springer was a decidedly noisy feature of the fourth inning and Fitch's high single handed catch was the signal for uproarious applause. Five Duluth men struck out under Peetham's rapid delivery, and Morris treated an equal number of visitors in like manner. Following is the score of Sunday's game:
Northern Pacifics, 9 4 0 1 0 0 0 0 5
Duluths, 1 4 0 5 1 1 2 0 14

LESTER PARK SCHOOL. School Board Discussed it on Saturday Evening.

The proposed new school at Lester Park was discussed by the school board on Saturday evening. A. B. McDonnell brought the subject up by moving that the building committee perfect plans for the Lester Park school building and report at the next meeting of the board. F. W. Paine expressed regret that the committee appointed to report on the advisability of erecting this school had been discharged before reporting. He expressed the opinion that the board had made a mistake in purchasing the new site, it not being large enough. He wanted to see building deferred until next year.

Mr. McDonnell said the board had voted to erect a building at Lester Park and he wanted to see the vote adhered to. The board had the money, he claimed, and might better build that than draw 5 per cent on (team amount less than would be paid for rent and interest.
Mr. Pearson wanted to read the report of the discharging committee which had not been presented but Mr. McDonnell objected because of the lateness of the hour and the matter was finally settled by the appointment of the new members. Messrs. Hugen Cobb and Freerly, as a committee to report at the next meeting on the preference for sites.
The Glen Avon school is to have a kindergarten. Director McDonnell made the motion and after some discussion it was adopted. A committee was also appointed for the purpose of investigating the feasibility of establishing more kindergartens and possibly changing some of the primary schools into kindergartens.

Principal Lohr of the high school made a request that meeting be held on the upper corridor door of the High School building. The board did not favor this, however.
The executive committee was instructed to see the board of health and request it to examine the school children to the cover workbooks, especially as to eye-sight and curvature of the spine. Mr. Cobb wanted to see some way provided for inspection as to cleanliness but was informed that the teachers express all the authority which is allowed in the respect by the state law.

Evens & Grandy, the contractors of the high school were allowed $290. This contract is practically completed.

RESIGNED

Judge Lewis Will Retire
From the Bench on September First.

Prefers the Practice of Law
To Wearing the Judicial Ermeline.

He Will Enter Into a Partnership With Attorney J. L.
Washburn.

It will be a surprise to the people of the city and county to learn that Charles L. Lewis has decided to resign his position as judge of the district court of the Eleventh judicial district. This morning Judge Lewis dispatched a letter to Governor Clough sending in his resignation to take effect Sept. 1, and requesting the governor to appoint a successor to take up the duties of the office in time for the September term.

Judge Lewis was appointed on the bench by Governor Nelson, and he took his place March 15, 1893. Last spring his name came before the Republican committee for renomination, and his selection was unanimous and hearty. In the elections last fall he was elected by a large majority and Jan. 1 he started in on a six years' term of which he has completed but nine months.

Of his judicial work during this time
nothing but praise has been spoken. For his courteous treatment and logical and sound decisions he has gained the respect and friendship of the entire bar,
as well as of all those who have had to do with the district court and who have come in contact with him during the period in which he has so ably occupied one of the most important positions in the district.

Judge Lewis will at once enter the practice of law, and it is understood that he will go into a partnership with J. L. Washburn. He is not only a clear-minded judge but an able lawyer,

and with J. L. Washburn, who is gaining a reputation as one of the brightest lawyers in the state, the firm
will be a strong one.

REASONS FOR THIS STEP.
In announcing his resignation to a
Herald reporter this morning Judge
Lewis said: "My reason for resigning is that I want to go back to professional life. The work has been pleasant and agreeable, and I like it, but the compensation is not sufficient to warrant one in abandoning the opportunities offered by an active professional career."

Judge Lewis' successor will be appointed from this district, which includes St. Louis, Lake, Cook and Carroll counties by the governor of the state.
He will undoubtedly be appointed from St. Louis county, and he will serve until next fall's election, and not for the entire term of six years unless he is re-elected at the county election.

Though the time in which a successor can be appointed is short, it is as yet entirely too early to tell who it will be or even who will be announced as candidates. The County Bar association will probably meet and nominate some one, and others may circulate petitions and forward them to the governor.

The Democrats have insisted that they should have representation on the bench, the other two judges being

Republicans, and they will undoubtedly make the same fight this time.

When will its progress stop? Not until everybody uses Price's cream baking powder.

RAFT TOWING RULES.

Prospect of the Bill in the Next Congress.

It is of course expected that any bill for the regulation of raft-towing on the lakes, introduced in the next congress, will have reference to the towing of rafts in the harbors of Duluth and Superior as well as the connecting channels between Lake Superior and Lake Erie, says the "Marine Review." It would seem, therefore, that officers of the Lake Carriers' association having this matter in charge will do well to anticipate and conciliate, if possible,
such opposition as may come from the timber interests at the head of the lakes. That opposition may be expected from this source seems quite probable from the following paragraph contained in a recent number of one of the lumber journals:

"The lake carriers, it is said, will again bring the bill to prohibit raft-towing in harbors, or at least to greatly cut it down, before congress this year.
It failed in the last congress, as it ought to have failed, because it was unjust to lumbermen, and, in a harbor like Duluth, would have been a most severe blow to the lumber interests,
and, incidentally, to the vessel interests
too. The hardest fighter against the measure, Senator Washburn, of Minnesota, will not be in the senate to work against it, but his successor will undoubtedly join with Senator McMillan
and other senators, and those members of the house who look after lumber interests as well as other interests, in fighting any measure which will cripple
the lake lumbermen. The new congressman from the Duluth district, Hon.
C. A. Towne, visited Washington when the bill was up before in the interests of Duluth lumbermen, and thoroughly understands the measure and will be found opposing it. It is a safe prediction that no such bill as was before pushed will get through congress."

The Lumber Drives.

Log driving around Duluth is pretty well over. The Black river drive is out. On this stream the dam broke last spring and there was fear that the logs would not get out. It was rebuilt, however, and the logs are practically out. The Middle river is about cleared, and a raft for F. L. Gilbert came in from there this morning. In the Amazon the logs are all down to float water near the lake. The Poplar drive is about cleared, but there are still some million feet in the Brule.
The water is good and the logs are coming out well. Scott & Holston received a big raft from the north shore
this morning.

This next week will practically see the delivery of logs to the mills inland. Lumbermen are already planning for next winter's work.

Coal Strike Settled.

The coal strike in Superior is off, the men giving in. The companies would concede nothing and the strikers believed that they could not win. The companies took them back wherever they could find places for them but discharged
most of the new men to make place for the old.

ARNOLD'S CHALLENGE.

Jim Arnold, through the columns of The Herald, to challenge any heavyweight in the Northwest to a fight, for $200 or any amount from $200 to $500. Fight to take place at any time or place. Jack Curtis is preferred in this challenge. Answers may be addressed to the sporting editor of The Herald.

BIMETALLISM AT GRAND RAPIDS.

Tomorrow evening Congressman Towne will deliver an address at the village hall at Grand Rapids on bimetallism, and at the conclusion of his address a bimetallic club will be organized. Several members of the Duluth Gold and Silver club will accompany Mr. Towne.

NOT THE MAN.

Chief Armstrong received a telegram
Saturday morning from Sheriff Wheeler, of Hudson, Wis., asking the Duluth police to hold a man having a large black mustache and accompanied by a delicate appearing woman on the 11 o'clock Northern Pacific train. The couple were eloping and the man had deserted a wife and four children in Hudson.

Two people answering the description came in on the train and were followed to Sullivan's hotel on West Superior street. It was discovered that the suspected man had a varied assortment of aliases, and the Wisconsin sheriff was telegraphed for. He arrived this morning and discovered to his chagrin that the man was a victim of mistaken identity. He returned alone.

MISSION CHURCH MEETINGS.

The first of a series of mission meetings will be held next Friday evening in the Swedish mission church, corner of Second street and Twentieth avenue west. These meetings will be of exceptional and peculiar interest to all Scandinavians because of the assistance which will be given by Rev. S. W.
Sundberg, of St. Paul; Rev. P. M. Johnson, of Rockford, Ill.; and Professor J. A.
Hultman, instructor of music at the North Park college, Chicago. The former pastors of the mission church in Duluth, J. Johnson and Alb. Johanson, will also assist. These meetings will continue through Sunday. It will be of interest to bear in mind that Professor J. A. Hultman will be present at all the meetings except Sunday afternoon.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE WILBIRDS.
The Wilbur Opera company opened its return engagement at the Lyceum last night with "The Merry War" and the opera afforded an excuse for exhibiting some elaborate costumes and as it abounds in exactly what the presentation was a decided success.

The part of Violetta was, of course,
taken by Miss Mortimer and she did not betray her trust. She was, however, not in good voice and appeared a little shaky on the higher notes. W. H. Kohle as Balthazar, the Dutch tulip gardener, metamorphosed into the duke of Limburg and "Hattie" Richardson as Elina, his young, brought enough comedy into the performance to keep the audience laughing. Kohle and Miss Richardson worked together admirably and their duets were invariably enjoyed. Maude Bolton made an imposing Arthemia, the Amazonian warrior.

E. A. Clarke as Umberto and J. E. Conley as the marquis received their share of applause. J. C. Harvey worked in some comedy and received an ovation for his dance in wooten shoes. The chorus did some excellent work and showed up well in the elaborate costumes. The living pictures have not deteriorated
in the least since the last visit of the Wilbur and the audience will hold spellbound until the curtain fall on good night.
Tonight "Mariana" will be presented.

AT THE PAVILION.

Troupe of Trained Dogs and Monkeys This Week.

The Pavilion was crowded at both performances yesterday and everyone who came went away wondering how the management can succeed so well
in sustaining the high character of the performances.

Mr. Carlini's trained dogs and monkeys furnish all sorts of amusement. The animals are thoroughly trained and there are no painful pauses during the performance of the tricks. Mr. Carlini's troupe is especially pleasing to the children.

Then Octavio held everyone spellbound by his marvelous feats on the black wire and Francis Bryant, the comedian, sang funny songs and told sidesplitting stories to the great delight of the audience. He was called back several times. Adelle Estee sang several descriptive ballads in a very pleasing soprano voice of considerable range and purity.

The Pavilion management has decided to give free matinees every afternoon this week, the only ticket of admission necessary being a coupon such as can be found elsewhere in The Herald. The idea is one that will meet with popular approval and will certainly result in packing the large auditorium each day. The special children's matinees which were inaugurated recently have made a great hit and will grow in popularity with the Pavilion patrons. This week's program will be especially pleasing to the children and the dogs and monkeys will afford the little folks no end of enjoyment.

tends the use of Dr. Price's cream baking powder.

A RACING MEET.

Association Formed on Saturday to Hold One.

The Duluth Racing association was organized Saturday night at the St.
Louis, about thirty of those interested being present. Dr. George W. Davis was elected president, Charles H. Dillitt, secretary and Alex. Michael, treasurer. It was decided to hold a meet Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 25 and 26. The program will consist of 250, 240, 235, and 230 free for all races, as well as special races including bicycling,

Speaking about good land, if Adam and Eve had located on John G. Howard's

have made the land of Paradise right there, because the climate is so beautiful and the soil so rich that it could not have been otherwise, and thus I would have to charge $100 to $200 per acre for this same land I now offer you for $5 per acre on long time and

EXPLOSION

Frightful Accident at Braddock, Pa., Early This Morning.

Gas Causes an Explosion Which Wrought Death in a Furnace.

Nine Already Dead--Five More Will Die--Many Injured.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—An explosion at Furnace H. of the Carnegie Steel company, at Braddock at 5 o'clock this morning killed nine men, injured sixteen more and destroyed $30,000 worth of property. Five of the injured will die. All of the killed and injured were Hungarians except James Harrison, the foreman. Their names have not been obtained. The explosion was due to a "hang" in the furnace which suddenly was loosened and dropped in the molten metal below, generating an immense quantity of gas so suddenly that it could not escape by the ordinary means and the explosion followed.

The terrible loss of life was due to a peculiar cause. A few minutes before the explosion occurred a barrow of material was dumped into the furnace. This clogged the top of the furnace and prevented the gas escaping. A gang of sixteen men, in charge of James Harrison, were sent at once to the top of the furnace to remove the obstruction. All were closely crowded around the bell of the furnace removing the material which had been dumped on it, when there was a terrific explosion, and men, boys, tools and materials were hurled in all directions.

Deadly gas and smoke belched from the furnace top and the men who fell as if shot. Only one man was killed instantly. He was blown from the furnace top along the metal roadway to the elevator shaft. Down he fell and striking on a car was cut in two, one-half of his body falling on one side of the car and the other half on the other side. The explosion was heard all over the city and the men who were working at the scene, but none expected to witness such horrors. A relief crew was quickly organized and went to the top of the furnace where lay fifteen men bleeding, torn, burned and dying.

The smoke and gas were still coming from the furnace and the work of rescue was dangerous, but covering their heads and faces with cloth the rescuers went bravely to work. The injured men were all leaning over the mouth of the furnace when the explosion occurred. Three men died before they reached the bottom of the elevator shaft and 8 o'clock this morning.

As fast as the injured men were taken down they were removed to an improvised hospital in the company's offices and the company's medical aid from McKeesport and Pittsburg was summoned. Five of them were killed instantly and terribly burned that the physicians did not deem it necessary to remove them to any hospital and they were buried in a few hours and no hospital could relieve their sufferings. Two of the men were revived and were being some hopes for their recovery they were taken to their homes. The contents of the furnace were blown out and scattered for hundreds of yards about, falling in all parts of the street, cutting and burning about ten men who were working below, but none were seriously injured. The fiery power fell on the carpenter shop nearly 100 yards from the furnace and it was soon in flames and was destroyed with its contents. The cast house was crushed in and ruined. The contents of the furnace were scattered abroad and the belief is that the furnace is badly damaged and may have to be rebuilt. It is this should be the case the total damage will be $20,000.

The Braddock fire department was called out and prevented the spreading of the flames and the members also aided in the work of rescue and did police duty. The scenes as the men were carried to the office were intensely exciting and pathetic. Women and children rushed frantically from their homes and the large force of policemen and guards was powerless to prevent them rushing into the improvised hospitals and dead house in the search for some member of their families. Tears and lamentations, wringing of hands and tearing of hair were all witnessed, and the stoutest hearts were moved to pity.

The homes of the killed and injured men were near the furnace and the streets were filled with a mass of weeping, frantic, half crazy women and children and that part of Braddock is indeed a house of mourning.

The following is a list of the workmen who were killed: Steve Havrila, cut in two, leave wife and two children. Joseph Tkaczewski, burned, Active wife and four children. Joseph Cope, burned, single. John Nelson, burned, single. John Pokopovec, burned, single. John Grucha, burned, single.

Two unknown. All were Poles and Hungarians, except Grucha, who was a German. Nine of the injured were brought to the street hospital in this city. They are reported to be resting easily. Of the injured it is now thought five will die. Their names are: John Warha, married, two children; John Seonda, married; Mike Jura, married; Mike Kapone, single; Andrew Drobne, single. These men were frightfully burned.

The following were seriously injured but will probably recover. John Wagniski, John Schorlari, James Harrison, two unknown. A number of others sustained slight burns and were injured by being hit by flying brick, but they were able to go to their homes and their names could not be learned. Two of the injured died after being in the hospital, making the number of dead eight. The injured were burned so badly as to be beyond recognition and the identity of the two will not be known until the bodies and such portions of the clothing as remain intact are viewed by their friends.

AGREEMENT SIGNED.

Payment of the Mora Claim Next Month.

Washington, Aug. 20.—An agreement has been signed by Secretary Olney, Minister Dupuy De Lome of Spain, Antonio Maximo Mora and Mr. Mora's counsel providing for the settlement of the Mora claim on the basis of $1,500,000 on Sept. 15 next. By the agreement the claimant waives all demands for interest and accepts the amount named as full settlement of the claim. This agreement was the result of negotiations conducted between Minister De Lome and Secretary Olney largely during their departure from Washington. The memorandum was signed one day last week, Mr. Mora and the attorneys being summoned to New England for the purpose of consultation and to attach their signatures.

There is only one point on which it appears that there may yet be a hitch. The Spanish government insists that the payment shall be made by Capt. Gen. Campos in charge of the Spanish forces in Cuba, and that the money shall be transferred to Mora or his representatives in Havana. Mr. Mora does not accept the condition and insists that the settlement is the result of negotiations between Spain and the United States and the payment should be either in Madrid or Washington.

The agreement provides the claim shall be paid in Spanish gold dollars which are slightly less in value than the American coin.

International lawyers say that the instructions of congress contained in the resolution directing the state department to collect only the principal but the interest on this claim is in no sense binding and that the principal is raised in any way, it will be sufficient to show that Mr. Mora had the right to waive interest.

Another Arrest in the Kenosha Incendiary Case.

Kenosha, Wis., Aug. 20.—Another arrest has been made in the arson and conspiracy case in connection with the burning of the Chicago Building company's factory. The prisoner, Bernard Huether, a wealthy Chicago man, was taken before Justice Slater and put under $100,000 bond to await his preliminary hearing, which was set for Aug. 30. This makes seven men now under arrest in the same case.

The police are after two more Chicago men. The authorities have shadowed them for the past two weeks, but have not been in a hurry to place them under arrest, as they are under the surveillance of the Chicago police. The local authorities are of the opinion that before the case comes to trial there will be many new developments, and that some of the most prominent people in certain circles in Chicago will be in jail on the same charge as those now awaiting trial here.

CAST UP BY THE SEA.

Gumry's Death at Denver Reveals His History.

Denver, Aug. 20.—The statement made yesterday that Mrs. R. C. Grenier, one of the victims of the Gumry hotel disaster, was a daughter of Peter Gumry, who was also killed, proves incorrect. Mrs. Gumry was married and leaves no known relatives. All he knew about himself was that he was of French birth and that his parents were drowned at sea.

Of all the crew and passengers of the British brig Peter Gumry when she foundered on the banks of New Foundland, over fifty years ago, he alone was saved. His rescuers gave him the name of the wrecked vessel. He leaves property valued at $100,000.

PRINCIPALLY RUMORS.

Admiral Kirkland Has Unearthed Some Gossips.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Admiral Kirkland sailed today with the cruiser San Francisco. He has traced and unearthed some of the gossips who have been taken out of the ruins of the Gumry hotel and it is evident that the death roll, when complete, will contain twenty-four or twenty-five names, instead of the twelve named and identified as: Frederick Houghold, manager of opera house, Lisbon, Iowa. The dead and buried are: Robert C. Grenier, manager of Gumry hotel. Mrs. Robert C. Grenier. James Murphy, contractor, Denver. George Buter. E. F. McCloskey, mine owner, Cripple Creek. Mrs. G. R. Wolf, Lincoln, Neb. Child of Mrs. Wolf. William Richards, elevator pilot. R. L. Lorch, Central City, Colo. Ferdinand French, treasurer of Gilpin county, Colorado. Myron E. Hawley, Union Pacific railroad clerk. L. W. Edwards, a Denver butcher.

DEPOSITORS WILL NOT LOSE.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—A special from Mexico, Mo., says: Benjamin C. Johnson has been appointed receiver of the Farmers' bank at Ladonia, Mo. The bank passes into the hands of a receiver for failing to comply with the banking law. It was started three months ago with a capital stock of $20,000. The stockholders paid the stock in notes instead of United States currency. It is claimed the depositors will not lose a cent.

WIRE NAILS MAY ADVANCE.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—The National Association of Wire Nail Manufacturers is holding a convention at this city. The advisability of advancing the price of nails from $2.15 per keg to $2.25. Trade was reported brisk. The advance will likely be made.

A LIVELY ELECTION.

Ulmur, S. C., Aug. 20.—Rumors were current this morning that the negroes, if not allowed to vote at the election being held for delegates to the constitutional convention, will seize the polls and vote at any cost. The white men are armed with Winchester and shotguns and will resist any such efforts.

OHIO

Preliminary Skirmishing for Tomorrow's Democratic Convention.

Senator Brice and Other Gold Bugs Dine With Silver Thomas.

A Lively Contest is Expected Over the Reports on Credentials.

Springfield, Ohio, Aug. 20.—The distribution of other preliminary meetings of the Democratic state convention are being held here today preparatory to the assembling of the convention at 10 a. m. tomorrow. Senator Brice reached Lima yesterday and arrived here this morning. He is making the fight of his life for a platform in harmony with the views of President Cleveland, Secretary Carlisle and himself on the financial question.

He is not taking an aggressive part for the nomination for governor or other offices, but is interested in the organization so as to control the committee on credentials, which will determine the contents of the resolutions on resolutions which will report the platform. He is believed to have a majority of the 508 delegates with him, but the free silver men claim 201 of the delegates. The delegates are all here today, and the question is as to what concession shall be made to the silver men.

The Brice men are not placing any objection to any of the free silver candidates, John H. Thomas and Col. James Kilbourn for governor, and they are both pronounced advocates of the free and unlimited coinage of silver. John H. Thomas has been opposing Senator Brice very strongly. But today Senator Brice, ex-Governor Campbell and other leaders dinner with Mr. Thomas and it is understood that a compromise was made, but it will not be known until the delegates meet and their plans are developed in the convention tomorrow.

Senator Brice is the temporary chairman of the convention, and his keynote speech is sure to be for "honest money," in favor of the immediate resumption of the gold standard. After his delivery committee reports will be received from the committee on credentials for senators and congressmen. The Brice men and the minority for seating the free silver contestants. In considering these reports the senator may have some close runnings and the silver men may get mad.

It is at this juncture of the proceedings that the contest between the free silver and the Brice men is expected, although the latter have things their way today.

Just before Senator Brice arrived at 11 a. m. the city was flooded with delegates bearing the following resolution adopted at the meeting of silver delegates: "We favor the immediate restoration of the law providing for the free coinage of both gold and silver, and their use without discrimination as provided for in the constitution." The silver men said that they had no fight on him and all they wanted was their plank. The senator and his friends are non-committal and want all to wait for the regular report. On the arrival of the delegates, ex-Governor Campbell's broadcast in anticipation of his nomination. All leaders and delegates arrived today.

DENVER'S HORROR.

WALLER CASE.

Some Light Thrown on Recent French Actions.

London, Aug. 20.—Fresh interest is added to the case of ex-United States Consul Waller, at Tamatav, Madagascar, by the presence here of Ethelbert Woodford, who assisted Mrs. Waller and her children out of Madagascar after her husband had been sentenced to imprisonment for twenty years by a court martial for alleged illegal communication with the Hovas, against whom the French are waging war.

Mr. Woodford, while in Madagascar, lent aid to the family of the United States consul. He has arrived here upon his return and states that upon his arrival at Tamatav he found Mr. Waller in prison. According to Mr. Woodford, the sole evidence against the ex-consul was embodied in letters to his wife and from a Hova friend, wherein the occupation of Madagascar by the French was discussed and description given of alleged outrages upon women.

Mr. Woodford declares, however, that the real cause for the French action against Waller is the fact that he had obtained valuable concessions from the Hovas, and that Mr. Waller had refused to surrender them to the French government, though offered by the French, who hold the right to the colony Madagascar. Mr. Woodford, "On May 8 last," says Mr. Woodford, "ex-consul Waller was hurriedly tried and sentenced. At the time I was in Madagascar," said he, "Edward T. Wether, of Georgia, was in charge of the United States consulate at Tamatav, and I was his guest for a month."

"I was naturally interested in the affairs of the consulate and saw all the correspondence of the United States government with reference to the Waller case. The Americans were much interested and we thoroughly discussed the matter, but there was no American gunboat or no protection of any kind. Nothing remained for the Americans but to submit to the action of the French and report the occurrences to Washington, which was done. As to that report, however, if my information is correct, there will be serious trouble, as I understand the report was not received at Washington."

"I then went direct to Antananarivo and found that Mrs. Waller and four children were in a state of destitution and living on the charity of Hova friends. I assisted them, and when I was leaving took the family with me to the coast and got aboard the steamer for Mauritius, where we landed almost penniless. The heavy additional expense of rescuing the Waller family was unexpected to me, I could not, however, do otherwise. There were grown up girls in the family, and I knew the fate that would be in store for them when the French should occupy the capital on the journey south to Antananarivo, which is seventy miles south of Tamatav."

"I did not land at Tamatav, as Mr. Wether had warned me that the French were seeking me, and would shoot me if they could catch me, owing to my visit to the capital, where they knew I had been in communication with the Hova government and the army. I left the island of Mauritius and came on here via Paris, at which latter place I stated all I knew of the case to United States Ambassador Dumble, through whom I was informed the United States government had sent to Mauritius for Mrs. Waller, who sails from there today and who will come to Paris."

Mr. Woodford adds to the above that the French in Madagascar are mere filibusters and are committing frequent high-handed outrages. All mails both from and to the island are inspected by French officials, and especially letters to and from the United States. Mr. Woodford's own mails were opened while he was there.

STATE DEPARTMENT ACTIVE.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The state department has not abated its interest in the Waller case, but is firmly resolved to actively press the matter to a conclusion. A dispatch incorporating the government's policy was sent to Ambassador Dumble today. The government is satisfied that none of the consular reports in the case were tampered with by the French authorities, as its files are complete.

WALLER HAS CONSUMPTION.

Paris, Aug. 20.—An important conference has taken place between United States Ambassador Dumble, and Mr. Benoit, in which the latter said that however desirous the government might be of satisfying the demands of the French, it would take time to get the documents bearing on the case from Madagascar. Mr. Benoit is reported to be in an advanced stage of consumption.

DRUGGISTS AT DENVER.

Students Who Graduate From Soda Fountains.

Denver, Aug. 20.—The educational section of the American Pharmaceutical association continued its session today. The delegates grew bitter and even extremely personal in the discussion of the question whether practical experience ought to be required of a graduate of pharmacy. The newer school of educators maintained that nowadays the student put in his time selling cigars and soda water, learning nothing whatever about prescription work. Finally the matter was tabled, the association declining to declare itself on the subject. Professor Hallberg, of Chicago, was elected chairman of the department and J. H. Beal, of St. Louis, secretary.

The commercial section elected George Seabury, of New York, chairman; Clay Holmes, of Elmira, secretary; Edward Schultz, Denver, member of the executive committee. The position of free alcohol was discussed and the question of the conference was referred to the next session. Mr. Wether, of Georgia, was in charge of the United States consulate at Tamatav, and I was his guest for a month.

IS QUIET

Little Doing Among the Industries at West Duluth Just Now.

Great Western Company's Affairs Are Still Far From Being Settled.

Slight Break Down at the York Plant Causes a Slight Delay.

The industrial situation remains very quiet in West Duluth. L. H. Moore, receiver of the Great Western Company, said this morning that there was nothing new in the affairs of the company. He said that he had received a proposition to purchase the whole plant, but did not anticipate result from it. There are certain legal difficulties which at present stand in the way of any immediate settlement of the affairs of the concern.

A slight break-down at the York plant has caused a temporary shut-down which will be but a few days' duration.

There are still rumors of the early starting of the blast furnace, and there is pretty good evidence that they are true, although it cannot be learned that any positive and definite arrangements have yet been made.

A large amount of lumber has been shipped from the lumber docks in the last few weeks, thereby relieving the piling room situation and giving the mills a better opportunity to crowd the work of sawing.

NOTE WAS USURIOUS.

Judge Moer Renders a Decision of Considerable Interest.

Judge Moer has filed his findings in the case of W. G. Hinman against J. A. Wing et al. to recover $500 on a promissory note. He finds that the note is void on account of usury, and that it, together with some stock which was left as collateral, is to be delivered up to him. He finds that the note was made as consideration for the loan of $500 made through J. B. Howard for Hinman. Who is president of a Michigan bank. He finds that $25 above the legal interest was retained for making the loan and that $15 was charged for renewing the note, therefore it is void.

The Scandia Building and Loan association has brought suit against Bernat Hulett for failure to pay. The decision is in plaintiff's favor.

Judgment has been entered in the Hulett case in favor of the plaintiff. Hulett and the settled case and bill of exceptions has been filed.

Hudson Wilson has sued John McKinley et al. for $2000.00 on a note, and against A. E. Humphreys et al. for $2000.00 on a note, and in each case asks that stock left as collateral be sold. S. C. & William Harrison are his attorneys.

J. R. Mitchell has sued Ellen B. French for $2000.00 to be due for setting her upon 100 acres of land in 1891. Bert Fessler is his attorney.

CATHARTIC CANNOT BE CURED.

With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, Cathartic is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies.

Cathartic is not a quick medicine, it is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best once known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results.

KNIFE

In the hand of a Surgeon gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting.

The Triumph of Conservative Surgery

is well illustrated by the

RUPTURE or Breach

Marble statuary,

statuettes, and ornaments—so delicate, so easily discolored—ought always to be cleaned with Pearline. That will bring back their snowy purity perfectly, and without the least risk of harm. Some of these soaps and other substances that are sold for washing and cleaning would simply ruin them.

So with marble mantels, slabs, tables, basins, etc. Clean them with Pearline. Then you won't see them gradually getting yellow or dingy.

With almost everything you can wash, there's some point or other that makes Pearline's washing better, as well as easier.

Feddler will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as" FAE—Pearline is never deceived.

If your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—read it.

ANOTHER DECLINE OF ONE CENT IN THE WHEAT MARKET Today.

Weak Cables and Talk of Gold Shipments Caused Further Selling.

The Seaboard Reported No Demand For Wheat For Export Today.

Wheat continued very weak today. The market opened steadily on the smaller Northwestern receipts, but the cables were weak and the talk of gold shipments caused further selling, and the market steadily went downward. The directors of the Chicago board at their weekly meeting yesterday passed a resolution making No. 1 northern wheat regular for delivery on contracts. The 100 bushel price was 1.00. The 100 bushel price was 1.00. The 100 bushel price was 1.00.

BURNING

Fierce Fire Ravaging Milwaukee's West Side This Afternoon.

Many Buildings and Much Railroad Property Was Destroyed.

Loss Heavy, But Figures Not Yet Obtainable—Under Control.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 22.—The warehouses on the Union Steamboat company's dock at the junction of Milwaukee and Menominee rivers took fire at 1 o'clock and are now a mass of flames. Three alarms have been sent in. The fire has spread to the warehouses of the Anchor line and freight sheds of the Wisconsin Central railroad. Freight cars are burning on the tracks at the yard and goods are being removed from the stores of the John Pritzlaff Hardware company. There is a high wind and the fire is spreading rapidly. 1:30 p. m.—The fire is spreading with fearful rapidity before a gale from the southwest. It now looks as if West Water street may be swept up to Grand avenue. The warehouses of the Union Steamboat company and the Anchor line are gone, as are also the freight sheds of the Wisconsin Central railroad company. The freight yard is a mass of blazing cars. The John Pritzlaff Hardware company's warehouse has just taken fire and that immense establishment seems doomed. Steamers and sailing vessels are being moved from the docks along the West Water street, as it is believed the fire will reach the Milwaukee river in the lower Fourth ward before it can be checked. The factory of the Delaney Oil and Grease company has been destroyed and the Rindel, Spence & Co.'s plumbing fixture establishment is now burning. The fire is spreading in a northerly direction and threatens the St. Paul passenger station. Sixty freight cars have been destroyed in the St. Paul yards. The flames are still sweeping in a northerly direction. A large number of frame residences have been swept away. Joseph McManus, aged 8 years, son of Detective McManus, was run over by a steam fire engine and instantly killed. 2:30 p. m.—The fire is now under control. The factory of the Rindel & Spence company, the Rieker Soap company and the store of the John Pritzlaff Hardware company were saved. The St. Paul depot is now out of danger. The number of freight cars destroyed in the St. Paul yards is now put at 600. The loss will be very heavy, but nothing like intelligent figures can be given, as much depends on the contents of the warehouses and freight cars.

THE STORY IN DETAIL.
Milwaukee, Aug. 22.—A fire which threatened to make havoc equal to that wrought in the Third ward in 1894, broke out at 1 o'clock this afternoon in the warehouses of the Union Steamboat company. A thirty mile wind was blowing and the flames spread with such rapidity that there was no telling where they would stop. The fire originated on the Union company's dock at the River and Reed street bridge, and is supposed to have been caused by smoking, or a spark from a passing steamer. It burned underneath the dock planks, at a spot about midway between the east and west ends of the warehouse and spread rapidly until it involved the whole great freight shed. The building was constructed entirely of wood. As it burned it heaved forth like a volcano, and within a few minutes the flames burst through the roof and caught a roof of freight cars just north of the building. The company's building was 600 feet in length and in thousands of tons of freight, some of which was destroyed with the building, which was in ashes in less than half an hour. Over 600 freight cars belonging to the St. Paul company, and in process of being loaded, were ready to ship, were enveloped in flames, the fire jumping from one line of cars to another so rapidly that the company's employees did not have time to remove any of them out of the line of fire, which was swept before the wind from the south-west at a lively rate. Within half an hour after the fire broke out in the steamboat freight house, the Wisconsin Central freight house, just north of the river, 300 feet in length, was totally destroyed. This, like the others, was filled with freight, and a large number of cars standing near at the time were destroyed. Within a few minutes of the time when the freight cars began burning, fire broke forth from the cupola of the oil and grease establishment of H. J. Delaney on Third street, a half block from the trucks where the freight cars stood. Following this the plumbing establishment of E. T. Doyn, on Second street, was quickly destroyed, and the wagon shop of H. Trinker adjoining took fire several times, but it was put out each time and seemed by a fair way to stand. A small row of dwelling houses on Fowler street took fire and were destroyed. The occupants were able to get nearly all their furniture out before the heat and smoke drove them back. The main freight house of the St. Paul company, extending from the southwest corner of Fowler and Second to Third streets, had a very close call, but was saved. It is a low brick building, and the flames passed over it and took the frame structures across the street. All the movable valuables in the freight house, however, were hustled out in anticipation of the fire of the building. The burned locality extends from West Water street along the river front up to the Sixth street viaduct. The fire is principally the warehouses of the Anchor Line company, the Union Steamboat company freight house and that of the Pennsylvania line.

SEAFOORD CLAIMS.

Company Has Not Received Any Notice Yet.

London, Aug. 22.—The manager of the London, Brighton & South Coast railway has not received notice of claims made by the American passengers of the New Haven-Denver steamer Seaford, sunk in collision with the steamer Lion Tuesday afternoon, for compensation for losses sustained. The amount of compensation due will be decided by the admiralty court, which will inquire into the causes of the disaster. The London, Brighton & South Coast railway, which also carries the ship, to which the Seaford belongs, loses $300,000 on the sinking of the Seaford alone.

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

A MURDEROUS DARKY.
Lincoln, Ill., Aug. 22.—While under arrest, Robert Davis, negro, supposed to be Albert Phoenix, a hotel waiter, shot and killed a colored man, John Williams, Phoenix, colored, and also shot Watson, man's assistant. The national five shots were fired in a row, but were too weak to pursue the other, who escaped the capture. The motive was killed by a RUNAWAY.
Milwaukee, Aug. 22.—John Williams, negro, of Mequon, aged 67, was killed and his husband, Andrew Knorrer, aged 77, fatally injured in a runaway accident in the northwestern part of the city today.

Surveying Party Now at Work in Charge of Duane Wheeler.

For some weeks past a party of surveyors has been working in the vicinity of West Duluth and Spirit Lake and back over the hill behind those places. Their movements have been quiet as those of surveying parties usually are, and it was some time before the fact leaked out that they were there. To a few in Duluth, however, it has been known and some of these few know what the party is there for, but these are not at all talkative.

PASSENGERS STORIES.

Tales of the Seaford-Lion Collision Yesterday.

London, Aug. 22.—Mrs. Seaman, of Milwaukee, talking over the sinking of the Seaford, today said: "I was sitting on the port side of the deck with my mother and son, just before the collision. There was a heavy fog over the channel. Suddenly the Lion seemed to rise like a phantom from the water. Then there was a crash and everyone was thrown down on deck. But there was no panic and even the women passengers were quite calm. I lost everything except a handbag."

John Hensby, of Philadelphia, said that the Seaford was shining brightly during the early part of the Seaford's trip, but she eventually ran into a heavy fog. He added: "The engines were slowed down, but she still seemed to be going too fast considering the fog. I was sitting on the starboard side of the deck and my wife and son were on the port side, near the place where the Lion eventually struck. I heard three whistles sounded almost right ahead of us. It seemed to me, at a moment later, that it was a crash and we were all thrown to the deck by the force of the collision. When the Seaford struck the Lion, which was evidently the vessel which had been whistling ahead of us, I saw a great deal of smoke and fire. The discipline on board the Seaford was admirable. The captain was cool and the crew were steady. The ladies went to the forward boats, which had been manned ready to take them off. I heard later from my mother that the passengers stepped on to her deck. The sea was as smooth as glass, we had not a moment's roughness. I saw a ship agent at Newhaven said we had no redress as the sinking of the Seaford was her own fault. The Lion was an act of Providence. But this is a question which we will put to a legal test. I do not hear a bell ringing on the Lion."

SEAFOORD CLAIMS.

Company Has Not Received Any Notice Yet.

London, Aug. 22.—The manager of the London, Brighton & South Coast railway has not received notice of claims made by the American passengers of the New Haven-Denver steamer Seaford, sunk in collision with the steamer Lion Tuesday afternoon, for compensation for losses sustained. The amount of compensation due will be decided by the admiralty court, which will inquire into the causes of the disaster. The London, Brighton & South Coast railway, which also carries the ship, to which the Seaford belongs, loses $300,000 on the sinking of the Seaford alone.

THE FUTURITY RACE.

Gossip About the Events at Sheepshead Bay.

New York, Aug. 22.—The final preparations of the Futurity candidates are nearly all made and the number of starters has been reduced by accidents or by disappointments. Handicapping and Axton will go to the post in the interest of P. J. Dwyer, both fit and ready. Handicapping will be ridden by Simms, and if no starter appears under Joe Donner's colors, Donnet will have the mount on the filly. In the Futurity stable three are fit, and Applegate is the best of the lot in public opinion. Although Jefferson is an unknown quantity, McCaffrey will ride him. Applegate is in the best of condition and his owner thinks his chances are as good as anybody's for the rich stakes. The Henson stable will start two at least, and maybe three. Hastings, of course, is at the head of the lot, and Perkins will be the jockey. Hamilton has been notified to be ready to ride another Merry Prince or Refugue, and it will probably be the former, as he has run away from his stable companions in his trial. In yesterday's work Hastings would only go three-quarters in 1:19, but soon after he went a half in 50 seconds. Gideon has two good colts in Requital and Haslet, and Griffin will probably ride the former. He was sent six furlongs yesterday in 1:14, going easily, while Haslet covered the distance in a little under 1:18. There is much talk at the tracks about Requital, and he is looked upon as the most prominent of the lot. Tatal thinks he could win with him. Haslet is by no means an impossibility, but he seems now to be a little short of the standard required. Crescendo was sent out yesterday, but could only do 1:16 for six furlongs, and was distressed at the end. Mr. Morris' stable will probably start Intermission and Formal, with Littlefield on the former and Penny on the latter. Palmerston is ready and has shown good enough work to warrant his owner sending him to the post, so he may be counted upon as a likely starter. Mr. Donner may start his Ponte-Groffe maiden Bonhomme, in which case Doggett will be unable to ride Axiom. Penny is doubtful. Other doubtful ones are Beau Ideal II, Damsel and Ragner. Hamilton I and Silver II will be tried today and upon the results depends the starting. Bonnyate will probably go to the post and St. Agnes may be sent out. The only representative of the Keene stable probably is Peep O'Day, and of course Tatal will ride. He has not yet shown Futurity form, however. This makes the likely starters eighteen, with a possibility of a few more.

WALLER'S TROUBLES.

United States Has Grounds for Asking His Release.

Washington, Aug. 22.—The following is given in official circles as a fair statement of the Waller case, so far as the facts have been reported to the United States. There is no doubt that while in a country occupied by the French, Mr. Waller was treated with the respect due to a citizen of the United States. These letters were traced to him and were made the pretext for his arrest and conviction. This arrest and conviction was irregular. His trial was not fair, and during his imprisonment, both before and after conviction, he was treated with great harshness. He was brought to France, chained to the deck of a steamer, and though ill and suffering, he was imprisoned without per care. The French government has not explained in any satisfactory manner, the irregular arrest and trial. It has been attempted to excuse it by saying that in time of war, military courts are different from civil proceedings in times of peace, but this explanation, in the opinion of the United States, does not meet the case, and in the opinion of the state department there is still a strong probability that Waller's treatment was due to the concessions he claimed in Madagascar. When the case was first presented to the department of state, it appeared that there was little that could be done for Waller. The first evidence furnished by the French government of Waller's indiscretions made his case look doubtful, but later developments, including the failure of the French government to explain the irregular proceeding of the trial and the unnecessarily harsh and inhuman treatment of the prisoner, and the demonstrated fact that Waller had some equity rights, at least in Madagascar, showed his case in a far better light. In view of what has come to light as a result of later inquiries, it is held that the United States has good grounds for demanding Waller's release and indemnity for his wrongs.

HILL'S PLAN DEAD.

Morgan Not Satisfied With the Security Offered.

St. Paul, Aug. 22.—A New York special to the Dispatch says: President James J. Hill, of the Great Northern railroad, left this city last evening for St. Paul. It has been positively stated that the Hill plan for controlling the Northern Pacific is dead. There may be some semblance of its vitality for a little while, but Wall street regards it as practically buried. This is the outcome of yesterday's conference, which developed that the two interests—the Morgan interest and the Hill interest—were totally at variance. The principal cause of the widening of the breach between the two distinguished financiers, J. Pierpont Morgan and James J. Hill, is the inquiry which Mr. Morgan recently had undertaken by a private expert. The expert had made a thorough inquiry into the situation of the Northern Pacific road. He had also made an inquiry into the real value of a Great Northern guaranty of Northern Pacific securities. It was the report of this expert that made Mr. Morgan raise his demands on Mr. Hill, asking the latter to put up $15,000,000 as security for the proper guarantee. This Mr. Hill refused to do, and thus all further conferences may be regarded at an end.

OFFER NOT ACCEPTED.

Washington, Aug. 22.—The offer of the Union Iron works of San Francisco to furnish sixty men to speed the fleet across the Pacific will not be accepted by the navy department and the Olympic will make her trip to Japan at the ordinary moderate pace usual to other vessels of the navy.

WOMAN

Minneapolis Woman Accused of Burning Her Sister to Death.

Insurance Money of Deceased Said to be Motive of the Crime.

Defense Claims It Was Accidental and Caused by a Lamp.

Minneapolis, Aug. 23.—Mrs. Nora Perkins was arrested late last night charged with the murder of her sister, Mrs. Louise Hawkins, the supposed motive for the alleged crime being the fact that Mrs. Hawkins held $5000 insurance on her life. Mrs. Perkins died Aug. 9 four hours after the overhauling of a lamp near a bed where she lay ill. The fire was supposed to be accidental, but a similar accident had occurred several weeks before, and this aroused the suspicions of the police.

In company with the insurance officials they have been making a quiet investigation, which resulted in last night's arrest. There are two policies on Mrs. Hawkins' life, $5000 in the Fidelity and Casualty and one for $2000 in the Security Mutual Life. The sisters were widows, and Mrs. Perkins has one child. Mrs. Hawkins burns were so serious that she died in great agony without being able to tell what had happened. The police absolutely refuse to disclose the nature of the evidence. The two policies were taken out April 9 in Mrs. Perkins' favor. It is understood that the state expects to prove that the bed clothing was ignited and the lamp overturned to conceal the crime. This is charged in the indictment. On the other hand, the defense claims to have an ante-mortem statement of Mrs. Hawkins to the effect that she had overturned the lamp herself accidentally. No one is allowed to see Mrs. Perkins in the lockup, but she is well and untroubled. She will be arraigned on Monday, and meanwhile an inquest will be held, the coroner having at first declined to hold an inquest, as the death seemed evidently accidental.

STRIKE PROBABLE.

Glass Workers Not Satisfied With Their Wages.

Pittsburg, Aug. 23.—Conferees of the joint wage committees of the Prescription Glassware Manufacturers and the American Flint Glass Workers' associations and the Green glass manufacturers and workmen, are being held here, but the prospects of an amicable settlement in either branch are not encouraging. The "flints" demanded an advance in wages of from 5 to 12 per cent, and the "greens" a strike. The demand for 12 per cent, was refused, and in the official register of the state department, Madagascar is not listed under the head of France, but of Madagascar.

POWERS IS DEAD.

Railroad Detective Shot By Robbers Died Today.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 23.—Detective G. W. Powers, who was shot last night, presumably by one of the Penitentiary robbers of the Chicago & West Michigan train, died today morning. Up to 1 o'clock this morning no clue to the assassins has been obtained. Fuller descriptions of the men who weakened the theory that they were members of the train robber gang. There is now a strong belief that they were members of the party who broke jail at Toledo Aug. 7. The entire detail and sheriff's posse were out and there are rumors every few minutes of captures but they cannot be verified. The officers believe the men will be captured.

FOR A PAIRCELS POST.

London, Aug. 23.—The financial secretary of the treasury, R. W. Hannbury, replying in the house of commons today to John Henniker Heaton, member for Canterbury, Progressive Conservative, who has for years past advocated postal reforms, and has been in favor of imperial penny postage, said that no parcel post existed between the United States and Great Britain. He also said he regretted the absence of such an arrangement, and assured the house that he would do his utmost to prosecute the efforts of his predecessor in that direction.

SUGAR MARKET QUIET.

London, Aug. 23.—The sugar market is quiet and there is no excitement. During the drought prices advanced slightly, but the recent rains have improved the beet crop. Sugar slightly declined in Paris and Hamburg during the week. It opened in London this morning, but prices were somewhat better at the close. In London sugar has declined from 3 to 6 farthings during the week. The report of Professor Licht, of Magdeburg, tomorrow will show that the quality is good.

SHE KILLED HERSELF.

Athens, Aug. 23.—A young woman, aged 21, shot and instantly killed herself this morning. Her husband, Samuel Bloomfield, died in the shooting was accidental. The Bloomfields came here one year ago from Elgin, Ill.

SAVED THE CROPS AND LAWNS.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 23.—Six hours of rain have brought out the crops and lawns, after a drought of several weeks.

BARNES' TROUBLES.

Filed a Suit for Divorce With Sensational Charges.

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 23.—John Albert Barnes today instituted proceedings for divorce against his wife, Helen Edith Barnes, naming ex-Mayor Frank A. Magowan as co-respondent. The petition charges that the wife had committed adultery with Magowan at the Hotel Anderson, Pittsburgh, on April 19, 1895; Sherman house, June 1; Hotel Imperial, New York, June 26; Hotel Savoy, New York, July 15; Hotel Windsor, New York, Aug. 20, and at various times at Barnes' home in Trenton during the month of July.

SHORT IN DEPOSITS.

Ohio Bank Forced to Close its Doors.

Cincinnati, Aug. 23.—The Times Star, Franklin, Ohio, special says: The community was astonished this morning to find the doors of the First National bank closed. It afterward developed that Comptroller Eckels had been advised of the suspension, and that Examiner Betts had been ordered to take charge. The bank was organized in 1866 and has always had the full confidence of the community. The cause of the suspension is stated to be a falling off in deposits and the holding of discounted paper that will not mature, and he was paid in full, as the assets are largely in excess of liabilities. The deposits are said to be only $100,000.

PROTEST PROBABLE.

England and America Displeased at the Man.

Washington, Aug. 23.—It is said at the state department that if the report is true that Viceroy Liu has been appointed to investigate the Cheng Tu case, then the foreigners have good cause for complaint. If the report is true it is probable both the British and American governments will protest. Viceroy Liu was governor of the province in which Cheng Tu is situated, and he was said to have been guilty of gross negligence, which by some persons was regarded as amounting to complicity in the Chinese case of last June. There are a great many men in China named Liu and it is possible that there has been a confusion of names.

COURSE APPROVED.

Why Perry Did Not Salute the French Flag.

Washington, Aug. 23.—The navy department has been informed by Commander Perry, of his action in not saluting the French flag at Tamatave. His course meets the approval of the department. Tamatave is not a French port. Consul Wetter, who represents the United States, is credited to Madagascar, and in the official register of the state department, Madagascar is not listed under the head of France, but of Madagascar.

HOUSES FOR EUROPE.

Baltimore, Aug. 23.—Owing to the low price of horses incident to the use of bicycles and electric power, large shipments of horses are being made from here to European markets. Five shipments have been made to Antwerp and Havre. The steamship lines say this promises to compensate them for the falling off of cattle exports owing to the foreign exclusion of American cattle.

KILLED HIMSELF.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 23.—Frank A. Reed, a prominent citizen of this city, shot and killed himself at his home here today. The cause of the deed is not known. Mr. Reed was about 40 years old. He was president of the Alexandria board of trade, vice president of the Washington, Alexandria & Mount Vernon Electric railway.

CAMPANIA'S FAST TRIP.

New York, Aug. 23.—The Cunarder Campania from Liverpool and Queenstown, arrived off the Scotland lightship and in the morning she was lowered her record. She arrived at Sandy Hook at 1:42 p. m., making the trip to the Hook in five days nine hours and twelve minutes. Her best previous record was five days nine hours and twenty-nine minutes, Aug. 27, 1894.

TROUBLES ARE ENDED.

Chicago, Aug. 23.—The tangle in the affairs of the colored Knights of Pythias was straightened today when Judge Chetlain discharged Supreme Chancellor Mitchell and his fellow respondents in the contempt proceedings. The attorney for Receiver Moseley informed the court that the Doley 4500 claim had been paid and that that settled all difficulties. The court was also asked to discharge the receiver but deferred action until tomorrow.

WAREHOUSES BURNED.

Merwin, Mo., Aug. 23.—Fire consumed two large implement warehouses together with their contents in the business portion of the town today. It was only through heroic efforts of the fire department that the town was saved. Origin of the fire is unknown. Loss is heavy but the figures are not obtainable.

DROVE THE TRAMPS OUT.

Arrola, Ill., Aug. 23.—While a cage with eight men in it was being lowered into the hill top coal shaft this afternoon a mob of about 2500 men worked out the cage fell, severely injuring Adam Yerkes, August Nelson, John Ford, Patrick Kelly and John Limberg. It is thought that Kelly and Limberg will die.

COAL MINE ACCIDENT.

WALLER

At Last the French Officials Will Allow Americans to See Waller.

Ambassador Eustis Has Finally Gained the Desired Permission.

Attaches of the Embassy Now En Route to See Waller.

Paris, Aug. 23.—It is semi-officially announced that the French government has granted the request of the United States Ambassador Eustis to allow a representative of the United States embassy to visit John L. Waller in his prison, under the usual regulations. It is stated, however, that no further steps can be made until papers in the case arrive.

It is understood that pressure has been brought to bear upon Mr. Eustis from Washington, in view of the strong representations made in American newspapers on the subject, and that nothing will be left undone to get at the true facts in the case. The negotiations between the two governments are said to be proceeding in the most friendly spirit.

GONE TO SEE HIM.

Washington, Aug. 23.—The state department has received a cable from Paris stating that Ambassador Eustis, upon the return of the French minister of foreign affairs to Paris, after an absence of some duration, has come to an understanding with him regarding the deputation to be sent to see ex-United States Consul Waller, who is confined in a prison under a twenty years' sentence at the hands of a French court martial.

IN THREE WAYS.

Kansas City, Aug. 23.—J. W. Walker, of the firm of Steele & Walker, the largest general store in St. Joseph, and who has been a leading merchant of that city for years, was found dead in a bath room in the Midland hotel this morning. He had gotten into a tub full of water and after taking carbolic acid, blew his brains out with a revolver. Domestic troubles are said to be the cause. He leaves a wife and five children.

IDENTIFIED HIM.

Tracking Train Robbers With Siberian Bloodhounds.

North Platte, Neb., Aug. 23.—George W. Islander, the Lynch county farmer arrested for complicity in the Union Pacific hold-up, has been fully identified by the engineer of the train. A great quantity of ammunition was found on Islander's person.

HONOLULU

Spaulding's Cable Project Will be Aired in San Francisco Today.

Hawaiian Government Terms in Granting the Annual Subsidy.

Projector Expects Material Aid From the American Government.

San Francisco, Aug. 23.—Col. Z. Spaulding, who was recently voted an annual subsidy of $10,000 by the Hawaiian government if he would lay a cable to Honolulu from San Francisco, is anxious to secure the co-operation of the United States in the undertaking. To that end, arrangements have been made to hold a special meeting of the chamber of commerce today to consider the best plan of laying the matter before the government. Vice President Craig, of the chamber of commerce, has received private advice from the Hawaiian government that the Hawaiian government is willing to grant an exclusive franchise for twenty years, to construct a cable and cable line and submarine telegraph cable or cables to points on the North American continent or any island or islands contiguous thereto.

The first cable must, however, have its terminus in San Francisco and it is for the maintenance of this that the subsidy will be paid by the Hawaiian government. The project is headed by further conditions, among them one that the United States shall join in the undertaking, "by the grant of substantial assistance to the contractor." If this assistance is not granted, or if the contractor fails to comply with the conditions of the agreement, then the Hawaiian government will be at liberty to cancel the contract at any time.

After the cable has been laid, penalties will be fixed for the use of the service, except by the government, for a longer period than ninety days, and should the Hawaiian government fail to cancel the contract at any time, the contractor will be entitled to a free right of way across all government lands and except from the cable on all materials and from taxes is granted to the contractor for these years, as well as the privilege of conditioning and appropriating such property or rights as may be necessary for the operation of the cable. The government should desire to assume control and ownership of the cable, and the contractor is to reserve the right to do so by payment of the cash cost of the land line and equipment and liens for bonds or interest on bonds.

The contractor is required to give bonds to the amount of $25,000 for faithful fulfillment of his contract. What Mr. Spaulding expects the United States government to be will be outlined by him today at the meeting of the trustees of the chamber of commerce.

CHINESE BIBLE.

Bishop Schereschewsky's Great Work Nearing Completion.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 23.—Among the passengers who will leave for the Orient on the Empress of Japan this week is the Rt. Rev. S. J. Schereschewsky, D.D., retired Protestant Episcopal bishop of China, who is engaged in a most important task, viz: translating the Bible into the Chinese from the original tongues. In 1859 he left for China as missionary of the United States Episcopal church, and subsequently appointed bishop of China, being the third incumbent of the office. In 1882 he suffered a stroke which compelled him to resign the office as it affected his speech and rendered him unable to move about. Leaving China he visited Europe and there commenced the great task on which he had engaged ever since.

Four years he spent in Europe and the remainder of the time in America, and now at last this stupendous work is completed and the bishop has with him a translation of the whole Bible in Chinese characters. On arriving in China he will commence the work of reproducing the manuscript into Chinese characters for which it will be printed and published. This will take three years more.

Speaking of the recent riots the bishop says the mandarins are in his opinion mainly responsible as they are the chief opponents of foreigners and use every possible means to stir up the ignorant people against the whites.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Dwight, N. D., Aug. 22.—A farmer named Erick Eklund, living near here, was killed by lightning while driving home from Kent Station with a trained nurse from Minneapolis who had just arrived to care for his sick family. The lady was badly shocked but managed to keep the dead body on the seat until she reached a stopping place after a mile and a half drive. She was unconscious all night. Her watch chain was melted by the lightning.

You cannot be well unless your blood is pure. Therefore purify your blood with the best purifier, Hood's Serrapapilla.

GOLDBERG'S LIFE.

What He Paid the Doctors For Prolonging It.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 23.—A peculiar will contest to reach the mysterious life of Morris Goldberg, a capitalist, who led a hermit-like life in the hills of East Oakland, has been abandoned. Goldberg became afflicted with a throat disease a year ago, and on account of his inability to swallow anything was threatened with death by starvation. As his condition became more serious the old man's desire to live became more intense, and he offered his physicians $25 for every day they should keep him alive.

A tube was inserted in Goldberg's stomach through which nourishment was forced, and by this means he was kept alive forty days, incurring a doctor's bill in the meantime of $25,000. When his will was filed for probate, in which will he bequeathed to his wife, Miss Gutte Siman, a niece, of Philadelphia, filed a protest. Miss Siman claimed that the will was procured by force and fraud, and will return to Philadelphia in a few days.

JAPANESE FOOD.

Mikado's Country Wants to Work Up Exports.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 23.—The Japanese government has taken steps to increase the already large trade between Japan and the United States. The chamber of commerce has received from Japan six cases of smoked and salted Japanese fish, which the chamber is invited to sample and ascertain if a market for the product is obtainable in this country.

The letter accompanying the fish states that the stock of fish in Japan has been only recently started under the guidance of the government, which is seeking to ascertain if there is a demand for them in American markets. It is understood the Japanese will export to this country other food products in a similar way.

ON THE MATTERHORN.

An American Girl Ascends the Big Mountain.

Boston, Aug. 23.—Miss Annie S. Peck, a famous mountaineer, cables from Zermatt, Switzerland, that she has climbed to the peak of the Matterhorn, a feat for which she had been in training for years. It is said that only two other women have ascended the mountain, and that she is the first American to do so. She is now at the summit, and is expected to return to the United States in a few days.

Miss Peck is a native of Providence and a graduate of the University of Michigan. For years she has been an enthusiastic mountaineer. In 1894 she climbed the Matterhorn, and in 1895 she climbed the Matterhorn. She is now at the summit, and is expected to return to the United States in a few days.

At the town of Headingley the papers and the arrest of the two men, Miss Moore managed to get the constable intoxicated and gave him the slip, leaving for Paris unknown.

IMPORTED SWISS CATTLE.

Washington, Aug. 23.—Secretary of Agriculture has received a communication from the United States Minister Broadhead at Bern, Switzerland, in reply to a query about Swiss cattle. It announces the recent importation of Swiss cattle into this country by the Hayemeyer family, who are now in New York in excellent condition. The prices are quoted as ranging from $2.50 to $3.00, and for calves from $2.50 to $3.00. The French contest with the Swiss for the claim for the best milk cattle in the world is now on. The French cattle is expected soon from the consul general at Paris.

MISSIONARIES ARE WELCOME.

New York, Aug. 23.—A local paper published the following from Lima, Peru: "American missionaries whom Cusco would not welcome, threatening not if the government prevented their expulsion, are returning to Lima by way of Oroya. The Bolivian question is to be submitted to the arbitration of an American state."

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE ON FILING PETITION TO SELL LAND.

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis, ss. In Probate Court, Special Term, August 23, 1895.

In the matter of the estate of Caroline Louise Furber, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Sarah E. Furber, administratrix of C. T. A. Furber, deceased, for the sale of the real estate, setting forth the amount of personal estate that has come into her hands, the disposition thereof, and how much remains undisposed of, the court is satisfied that the petition is proper, and that the persons interested in said estate, their residences, and praying that license be granted to sell part of said real estate, and that there be no sufficient personal estate in the hands of said administratrix to pay the legacies or other claims of the persons interested in said estate, and that it is necessary for the payment of such legacies or expenses to sell part of said real estate.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before this court on Saturday, the seventh day of September, A. D. 1895, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, in the office of the court, to show cause why the petition should not be granted, and to show cause why the real estate of said deceased should not be sold, and to show cause why the legacies and expenses should not be paid out of the proceeds of such sale.

And it is further ordered, that this order shall be published once in each week, for three successive weeks, prior to the day of hearing in the Duluth Evening Herald a daily newspaper printed and published at Duluth in said county, and that the date of the hearing be published in the Duluth Evening Herald, the 16th day of August, A. West Duluth People Would Like H. H. Phelps for City Attorney.

West Duluth police headquarters had been as quiet as a mouse for some time until yesterday afternoon when three intoxicated individuals were brought in to spend the balance of the day behind the bars. Their names are Thomas Torney, Matt Hill and Christ Gordon. The first one on the list appears to be a fit subject for Keeley's institute as he had a bad attack of snakes during the night and had the privilege of reviewing a whole procession of animals of various kinds and shapes as they passed by him during his delirium.

They FAVOR PHELPS.
If West Duluth could elect a vote for city attorney there is not much doubt that H. H. Phelps would be elected by a large majority at this end of the city. The sentiment seems to be strong in his favor here, many people volunteering the expression that they hope he will secure the position. He made a good record as village attorney of West Duluth. It was also found by investigation that the aldermen in the western end of the city were nearly if not all in favor of Mr. Phelps and would cast their votes for him on the first ballot.

A SMART DOG.
"I suppose you remember my dog, Dagobert," said the man with the ginger hair.
"Can't say as I do," said the grocer, "though I remember hearing you say you had a dog."

"Well, one time I lost him. I waited about four days, and then I saw him. He was away on some of his country paper and what do you think, but the dog came in as home as cool as you please the day after I put him in the paper."

"I thought that was my dog," said the man with the ginger hair, "and I heard the straight of it. You see, me and the dog had a little falling out and I said in his presence that I didn't care much of a lost him. Next day he was gone. I found him afterwards, but he was so fat and the neighbors an' he made himself useful chain haws."

A CHANGE

Census Brings Duluth Under Another Provision of the Election Law.

Voters Must Register Ahead Before Every Election—No Names Copied.

Election Expenses Also Considerably Reduced Under New Regulations.

Since the taking of the census Duluth has been wearing larger shoes and the increase in population brings the city within the limits of the law regulating the conduct of elections in cities of over 40,000.

The changes will greatly reduce election expenses. The clerks will not serve on the board of registration but will only receive 25 cents an hour for work done election day. The judges will receive 25 cents an hour for work on the registration board and 20 cents an hour only during the counting of the ballots.

Hereafter every voter must register before each election as the fact of voting at the preceding one will make no difference. According to the law which was considerably amended at the last meeting of the legislature, there will hereafter be no copying from old registration lists or polling books.

The last legislature evidently believed in giving the working men a chance because under the new modus operandi the polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. Under the former regulation the polls in Duluth were open from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. There will be no excuse for anyone getting left who wants to vote.

A part of the new law is decidedly intricate and is puzzling City Clerk Richardson. He left last evening for St. Paul to consult the secretary of state and attorney general on several points.

Alfred Mitchell accompanied the city clerk on his trip to the Twin Cities. The honor of being large enough to contain a good deal of trouble on the governmental side.

WILL HE FILE SOON.

The condemnation proceedings of the Minnesota Canal, which are nearly completed, and the reports will be filed in a short time. One set of commissioners has already come in from Carlton today and will be through in a few days. H. C. Spaulding, president of the board, is attending at the session. The two proceedings involving the condemnation of the land on the north side of the canal, which is now being sold by the state, will be heard on Monday. The opening of the annual session of the legislature will be on Tuesday, Sept. 3, at 10 o'clock. It should have read 40 and 50.

DENBY

State Department Not Displeased With the Minister to China.

Diplomatic Progress, Especially in China, is Very Slow.

Consul Hixon Cannot be Reached by Telegraphic Messages.

Washington, Aug. 24.—The following is given out officially at the state department today:

Upon Acting Secretary Adee's attention being called to the statements in yesterday's papers that much dissatisfaction was felt at the state department because Mr. Denby had not been heard from for several days, and that he was supposed to have taken umbrage at instructions lately cable to him, Mr. Adee said that he had authorized no expression of the department's opinion as to the cause of Mr. Denby's silence, for the simple reason that no opinion had been formed, practically no communications having practically no speedy mail service and few telegraphic lines. It is a problem of the fitting protection of lives and property interests of our citizens scattered over a territory covering 1,500,000 square miles or more, and requires constant conference and co-operation between the minister and the admiral commanding, as well as the practical government of China, as far as foreign interests are concerned, is a cumbersome body to deal with, its deliberations being often protracted as are the execution of its decisions on the doubtful seal of the local viceroys and provincial governors; and that the necessity of bringing all these diverse factors into concurrent working might well baffle Mr. Denby's natural desire to report to the department successful action upon its instructions.

"To take the case of the Ku Cheng investigation, communication with the consul at Foo Chow was obviously necessary to any intelligent action, and Mr. Hixon appeared to have put himself beyond telegraphic reach. The need of communicating with him by personal message, perhaps explains the press reports that Commander Nowell, of the Detroit, had gone to Ku Cheng to see him, of which, however, the state department has no confirmation. The dispatches from Shanghai and Hong Kong are to be taken with some allowance, by reason of the apparent disposition in those quarters to work up a prejudice against the diplomatic and naval representation of the United States in China and dependence upon such reports might be more likely to complicate and defeat rather than aid the government in the carrying out of its practical purpose."

Mr. Denby, an old and highly respected American missionary, residing at Tungchow, was attacked by a crazy carpenter and his brother, and was severely cut with a knife. The two criminals were immediately arrested and are now in prison awaiting their trial. Mr. Denby adds that the matter will create a great stir in China, but it is absolutely without foreign political significance.

CLEVELAND BLAZE.

Several Buildings Guttled by the Flames.

Cleveland, Aug. 24.—Fire broke out at an early hour this morning in the 5-story brick Williamson block at the corner of Euclid avenue and Monumental square. Notwithstanding that streams from twelve to fifteen engines and two fire boats were soon playing on the flames the building was entirely consumed. The first floor was occupied by Benfield Bros., druggists, the Good year Rubber company, and Larned glove store and the upper floors were used for offices. The flames quickly spread to the adjoining building occupied by Sherwood's jewelry store and Quibby's dry goods store. The rubber store was gutted and the dry goods store damaged to some extent by smoke and water. The Cuyahoga office building at the corner of Square and Superior streets, one of the finest structures in the city, caught fire several times, but beyond slight damage from smoke and water suffered very little. The total loss will not exceed $100,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

SYRIAN TROUBLES.

American Consul to Personally Investigate Them.

Washington, Aug. 24.—The state department is in receipt of information from our minister at Constantinople concerning the recent attack on the premises of Mr. Christie at Tarsus, a brief report in regard to which had previously been communicated by the Turkish minister at this capital. Mr. Terrell's report and that of our consul at Beyrout puts a different aspect on the affair, which was more serious than it was at first said to be. Mr. Terrell's prompt success in obtaining

INQUEST

Coroner at Minneapolis Trying to Probe into an Alleged Crime.

Mrs. Hawkins' Ante Mortem Statement to Dr. Bell Was Introduced.

Mrs. Perkins Declares She is Innocent--Romantic Story of Life.

Minneapolis, Aug. 24.—The delayed inquest over the remains of Mrs. Louise Hawkins, of whose murder her sister, Mrs. Lora Perkins stands accused, was begun this morning. The most important testimony elicited was that of Dr. J. W. Bell, who attended Mrs. Hawkins after the fatal fire. He testified that the woman had been questioned by neighbors, in his presence, as to how the accident occurred. She was confessed in her replies, being under the influence of an opiate. She said the first intimation she had of the danger was when she woke up and found the bed in flames. Later she did not know whether the lamp exploded or whether she had overturned it. From this evidence it is certain that the state expects to combat the ante-mortem statement which, the defense claims, will clear Mrs. Perkins. The

TENTS FOR FARMERS.

Minnesota Will Provide Them at the Fair.

St. Paul, Aug. 24.—The directors of the state fair have applied to the adjutant general for tents to be used by those who attend the farmers institute during the state fair, and this afternoon Gen. Muehlberg and M. S. Converse, the military storekeeper, visited the grounds to ascertain how many were needed and where they were to be put up.

It has generally been the custom to provide tents on the fair grounds for the farmers who attend the institutes, as it materially reduces their expenses and gives them better opportunity to attend all the sessions and this will be done this year.

HAWAIIAN CABLE.

Estimates Concerning Spaulding's New Line.

San Francisco, Aug. 24.—Col. C. Spaulding, who recently received a franchise from the Hawaiian government to lay a cable from Honolulu to this city, will leave for Washington to secure the co-operation of this government in the undertaking. Col. Spaulding will call upon the cabinet officers with a view of clearing the way for a presentation of his plans and demands to congress in December next. In order to float successfully the enterprise he calculates that nearly $4,000,000 will be required, and that a yearly income of $400,000 will be required to keep it going. The $4,000,000 is to provide all the stations, equipments, cables, rights-of-way, cable ship and working capital. Toward the income the Hawaiian government has pledged $40,000 a year for twenty years and the "substantial aid" referred to in Col. Spaulding's contract with that government to be furnished by the United States government means $200,000 a year for twenty years. This in all would be $300,000 annually, and the expectation is that the receipts after the first year or so

FUTURITY

Splendid Conditions for the Great Sheephead Race Today.

Horses in Fine Shape and the Weather is Simply Perfect.

Large List of Starters With Several Suggested as Winners.

Sheephead Day Race Track, Aug. 24.—The Coney Island Jockey club track at Sheephead Bay was never in better condition than today. The annual fall meeting of the club is one of the features of the racing year, and with all its triumphs of the past, this year promises to exceed them all. Today the day of the great Futurity race, when twenty-one 2-year-olds will struggle for the richest stakes in this country, and the other races during the day are full of promise. The candidates for the Futurity appeared on the track this morning with their stable companions, but their work was done, and they were only taking gentle exercise to keep their muscles limber and their limbs in perfect condition for the great struggle that is to take place about 4:30 o'clock. Handicapping is the choice of the majority of the trainers at the track, in spite of the fact that the betting men were in favor of Hastings. The former pin their faith upon the Dwyer crack because he has shown such consistent form since he began his winning career. His string of victories at the Sheephead Bay spring meeting was the chief reason for his following, and his single defeat by Hastings was not taken into consideration as much as was expected. Hastings has won his three races, defeating Handicapping in one, and the confidence in the stable that he will win is great. The other Blemton entries, Merry Prince and Refugee, are also undoubtedly doubtful, which will doubtless bring about a change of jockeys on some of the others at the last minute. Requitall and Haslet are the best of the Gideon string, and the former is greatly thought of. He will have a large following when he goes to the post, and in the betting he will not be far behind the others. Axiom is by no means an impossibility, and if Handicapping should be carried off his feet by Hastings in the first quarter, Axiom may be there or thereabouts. The latter is the best ever sent out for the great race, and the day brings a perfect one for racing. It is thought that the attendance will be far greater than at any other time during the history of the race.

At 10 o'clock the trainers had all left the track, and their charges were resting quietly in the stables, with six hours wait for the contest of the year. John Hyland, trainer of Requitall and Haslet and former trainer of Hastings, had a group of spectators around him listening to his remarks. There is no doubt that he has a great liking for Hastings, and while he hopes to win with Requitall, if he is beaten it would suit him better to have Hastings do it. He spoke of the race in which Hastings defeated Handicapping as one of the fastest races he ever saw, as a dozen watches caught Hastings at the half-mile in 46 seconds. If Hastings can do that again today, it is a question whether any other contestant can live with him.

Hyland declares that Requitall has never been tried, as he has won all his races with but one exception, and that was when he got away twenty lengths behind Handicapping and not in his stride, yet finished well up. With that race out of the question, Requitall has an excellent chance. There was much talk about the Western colt Nimrod later in the day, and it was argued that he must have a good chance, for his owner to come so far and pay so much to send him to the post. Silver II had a good many followers among the rail birds, who declared that he had a chance to win. In fact, it is not a hard matter to find during the morning a number of supporters for every horse in the race.

It was conceded on all sides that never in the history of the race had the race been more open and a possibility for a dozen horses, even though the favorites were only two in number, with good odds above the others. A fair estimate formed from a conversation of leading trainers at the track makes Handicapping the choice in the majority, with Requitall second, Hastings third and Haslet, Axiom and the others following.

CROOKSTON'S RAILROAD HOPES.

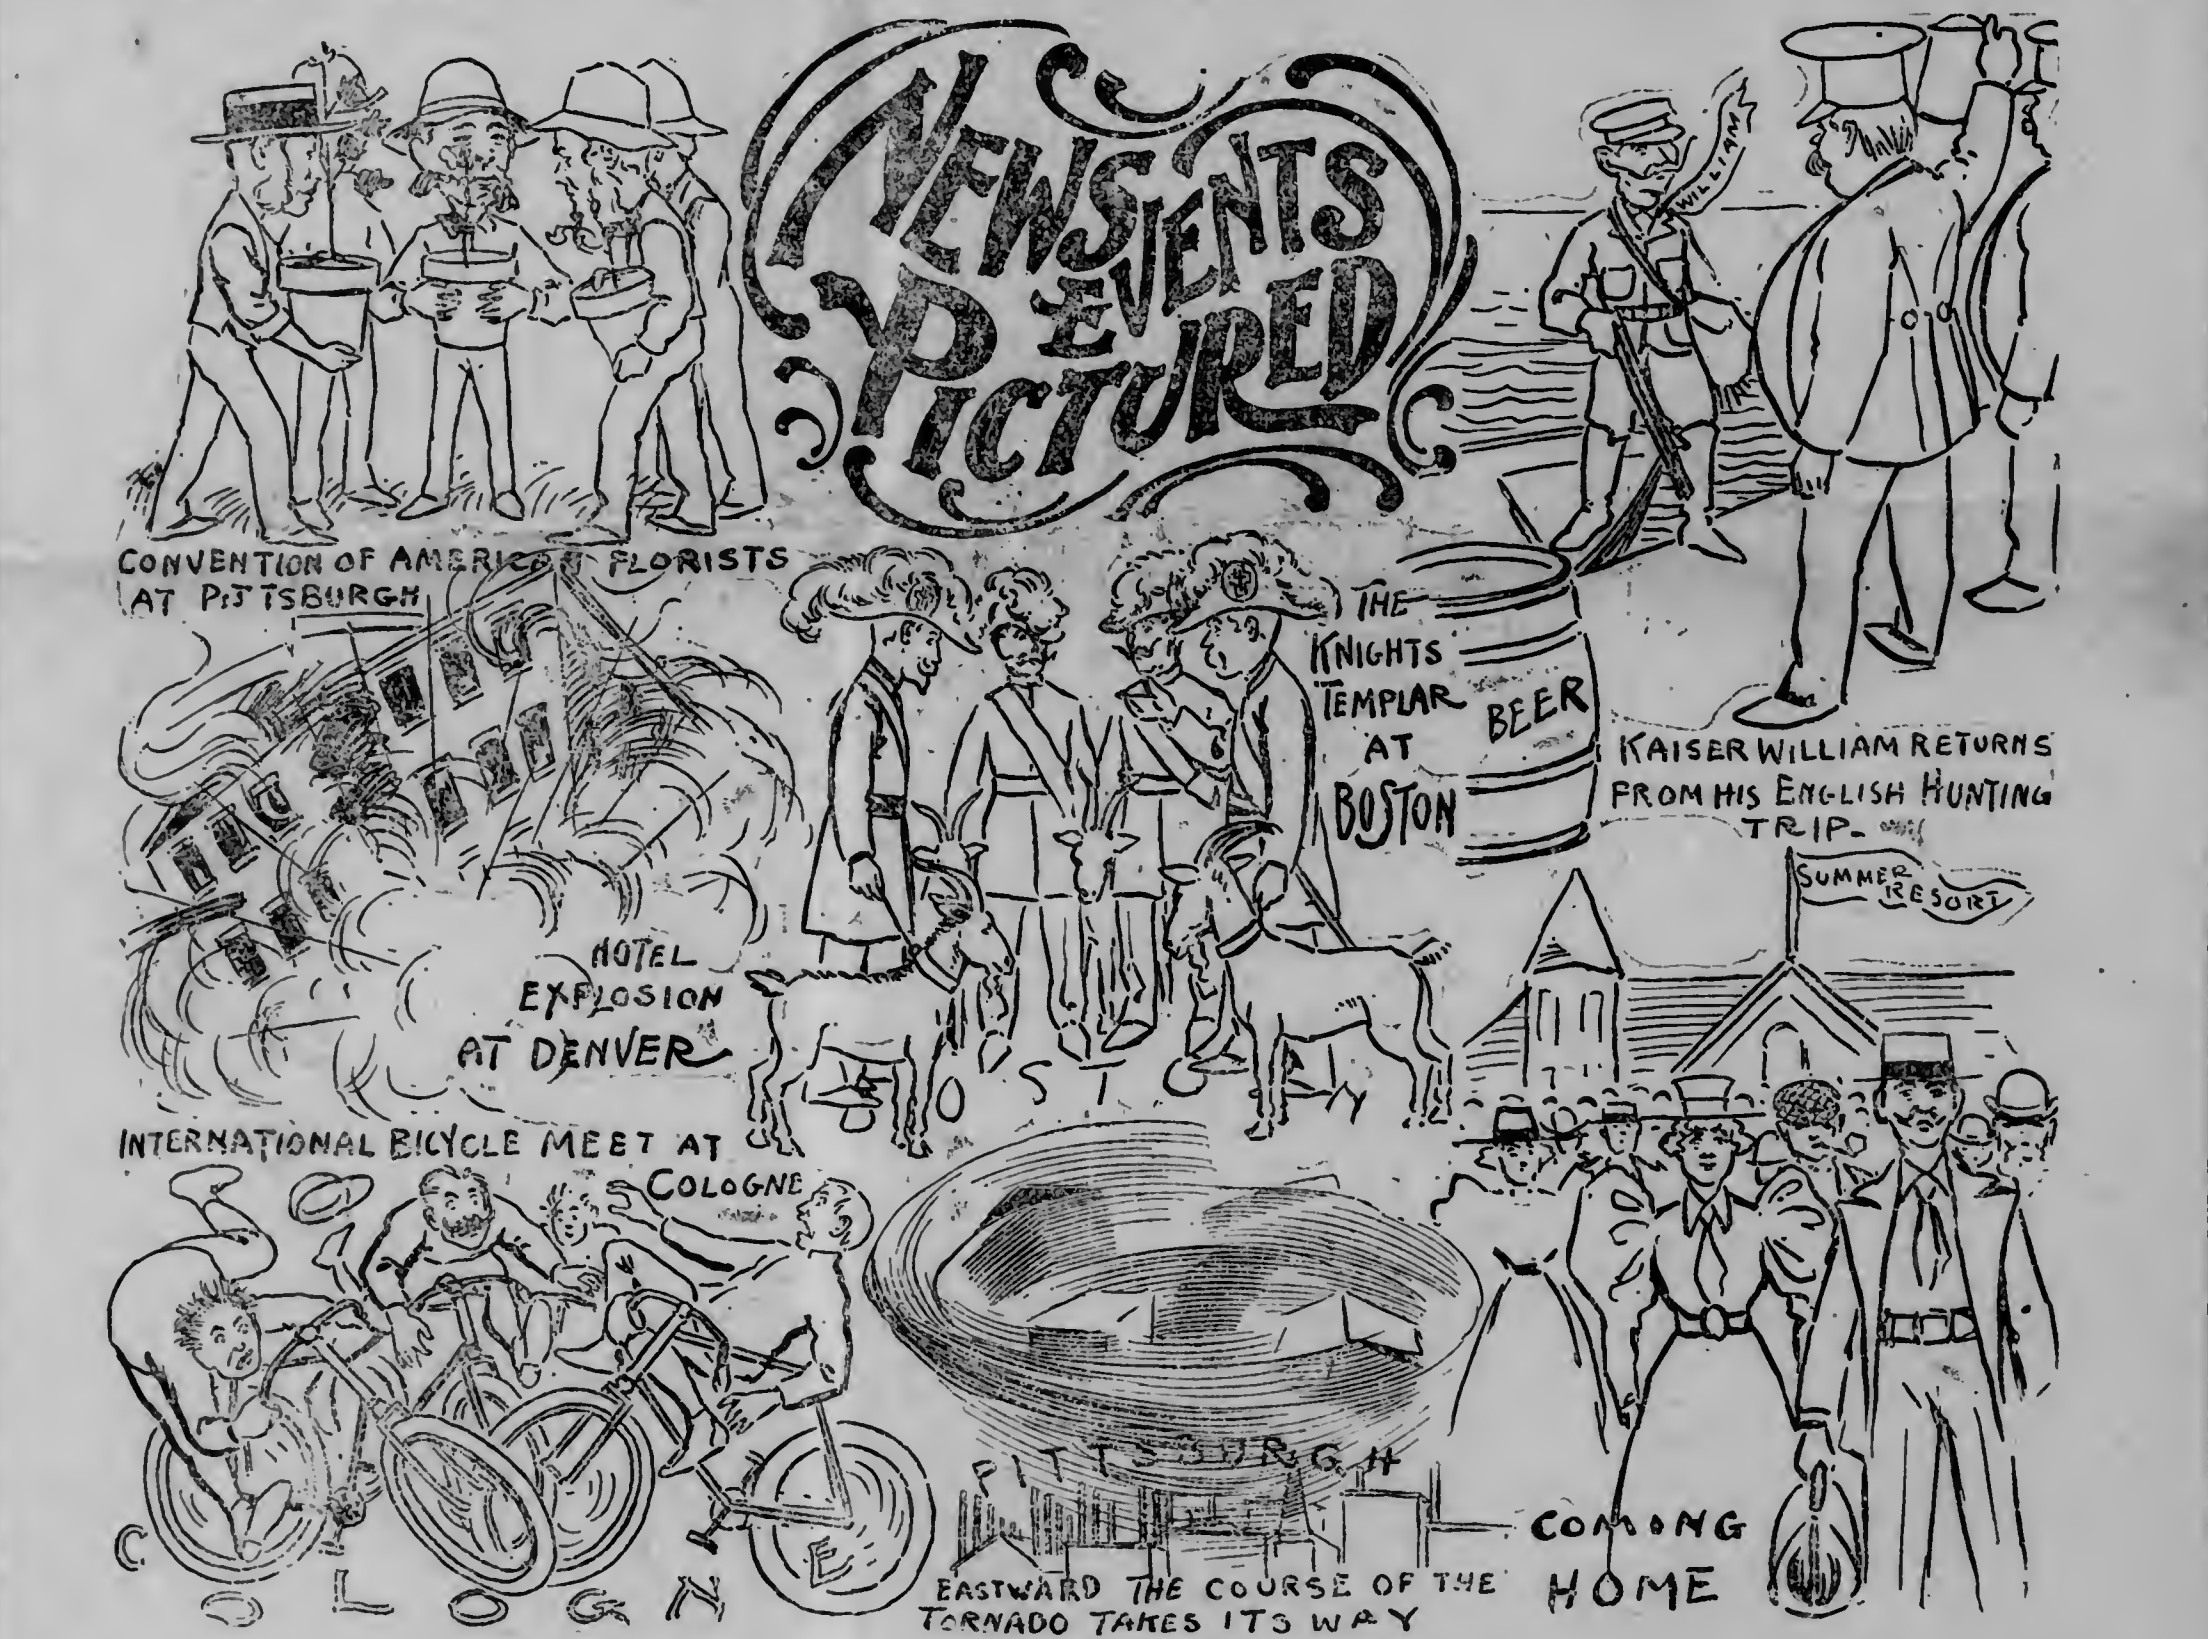

Crookston, Minn., Aug. 24.—The general manager of the Rainy Lake, Crookston & Pacific railway, a corporation formed some years since to build a road in a southwesterly direction, will shortly call the directors together and place the organization, which has been inactive of late, upon a basis where it can accept of bonuses and bonds which will be offered by the township through which its line runs. The move is believed to indicate an attempt to induce the Milwaukee road to build this way.

ROAD TO JACKSON HOLE.

Lander, Wyo., Aug. 24.—Maj. Kramer has made a detail of forty men from Company F, Eighth infantry, to build a road into the Jackson Hole country by way of Union Pass from Fort Washakie, the object being to bring the fort as near as possible to the post. It is said the proposed road will save at least two days' march across the mountains.

AN ARMENIAN RELEASED.

Constantinople, Aug. 24.—The representations which the United States minister, Mr. Terrell, has made to the Turkish government have resulted in the release of an Armenian named Arkellian, a naturalized American citizen, who has been in prison at Marivan for several weeks past under suspicion of belonging to a revolutionary society.

endeavoring with alacrity to fulfill the duties imposed upon him by the department's telegrams of the past week. "It is to be remembered," Mr. Adee said, "that China is a country slow of communications, having practically no speedy mail service and few telegraphic lines. It is a problem of the fitting protection of lives and property interests of our citizens scattered over a territory covering 1,500,000 square miles or more, and requires constant conference and co-operation between the minister and the admiral commanding, as well as the practical government of China, as far as foreign interests are concerned, is a cumbersome body to deal with, its deliberations being often protracted as are the execution of its decisions on the doubtful seal of the local viceroys and provincial governors; and that the necessity of bringing all these diverse factors into concurrent working might well baffle Mr. Denby's natural desire to report to the department successful action upon its instructions."

ing from the porte instructions to the val of Beyrout to investigate and prosecute those found guilty will secure, it is expected, immediate and full justice, as promised by Mavroyani Reis' communication. Our consul at Beyrout has also been ordered by the minister to proceed to Tarsus and investigate the matter himself.

GRAIN WEIGHING.

Chicago Elevators and Grain Dealers Lock Horns.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Unless the demands of the Illinois Grain Dealers' association are promptly acceded to by the elevator men of Chicago, there is a bright prospect for the institution of a virtual boycott against the latter class that will affect their business to a serious extent. This is the kind of a guarantee that was thrown down yesterday at a joint meeting of committees from the Illinois Grain Dealers' association and the Chicago Receivers' association.

The meeting was arranged for the purpose of discussing the evils of the present system of weighing grain in vogue among elevator men, and to devise means for its correction. It resulted in the unanimous conclusion that the interests of the grain dealers of the state demanded that disinterested weighing should be on duty at each public elevator, and that such elevators as refused to adopt the suggestion should be discriminated against by all the dealers making shipments to Chicago.

state refuses absolutely to say what the evidence against the imprisoned woman is, but it is known that she is charged with impersonating her sister in obtaining the insurance policies, and with forging her sister's signatures to the documents. It is also suspected that the two women were not really sisters.

Mrs. Perkins was interviewed this morning and told a romantic story of her lives. She claimed they were of noble Spanish birth and had come from Madrid to Tampa, Fla., in childhood. There they were educated in a convent and there she married Hal Perkins, a printer, now dead. She asserts her entire innocence and declares that they both took out life insurance for the benefit of each other, although her policy has not yet been allowed. She was solicited for the Security Mutual Life of New York, and they took out the insurance to save the commissions and were to assign the policies to each other. She admitted that she had already made two payments on Mrs. Hawkins' policy. She stoutly maintains her entire innocence.

BULL FIGHTS TO COME OFF. DENVILLE, Aug. 24.—It is understood that there will be no interference by the governor with the bull fights at Gillette near Cripple Creek, which are announced to begin Sunday and to continue three days. Arrests may be made at the instance of the humane society. Bulls will be furnished and the fights will go on.

BOSTON DOCK FIRE. Boston, Aug. 24.—Fire totally destroyed the oil refining works of Frank E. Young, South Boston, this morning. The establishment occupied the entire end of the Bay State wharf and consisted of half a dozen low wooden buildings, which with four large tanks of oil were an easy prey for the flames. A large three-masted schooner was at anchor near the wharf and was set on fire. Owing to the low tide the vessel could not be towed out of danger and she was partly destroyed. The total loss is estimated at $25,000, partly insured.

would be $100,000 more; a total of $400,000 would thus be secured. When the second subsidy has been pledged a stock company will be organized. This company will have a capital stock of $1,000,000, and one-quarter of the stock will be raised by residents of the Hawaiian islands, one-quarter by the chamber of commerce of San Francisco, which has already been pledged, and the remainder in the East and Europe. Col. Spaulding expects to be able to manufacture and lay the cable within eighteen months from the time of placing the order for it.

OCEAN GREYHOUNDS.

Paris Fails to Beat Her Previous Record.

New York, Aug. 24.—The American line steamer Paris which sailed from Southampton, Sunday, Aug. 18, was sighted off Fire Island at 3 a. m. Her captain was under orders to make the trip a trial of speed. The Paris left Southampton on Sunday, Aug. 18, at 12:35 a. m. The record from Southampton to New York is held by her sister ship, the New York, and is 6 days, 7 hours and 14 minutes. The Paris' best time for the passage is 6 days 9 hours and 37 minutes. Allowing the Paris an hour to reach Sandy Hook lightship, where the voyage ends, so far as the record is concerned, her time will not be within seven hours of the New York's best run and about five hours behind her own.

WHEELMEN JOURNEYING.

LUCY BRIGHTENED HIM.
A school young minister recently took up quarters in a boarding house in the Fondren district. He was delighted to find himself the only gentleman at a table where there were young women
even to murmur and he had to refrain from laughing at the sight of him on the first Sunday morning.

In the evening they sang gospel hymns for him. He realized only that night and the sound of their voices lulled him to sleep, but it did not seem to him that the song was exactly gospel. However, he had forgotten the occurrence by breakfast time.

The next day some marks on the door of the back parlor attracted his attention. There were just a few marks,
although he did not notice that at first.
They were young women, varying in altitude from four and one-half to five feet.

A quarter past five, over each mark was a capital letter. In the first column they read: "The young women were the first ones to come in. Underneath the lines were the names of the girls. The captions were a surprise to the minister.
He had been told that the girls were
from four and one-half to five feet.

The minister became very curious about the marks. He asked many questions, but the young women only teased him by way of answer, exciting his curiosity and fascinating him all the more.
It had seemed to him that young women
of the city had been charming to him,
but now he was sure that the girls were
from four and one-half to five feet.

What might have been the future
relations between himself and the girls
he did not know. He returned to his room and found a note pinned to his door. It was from the girls and it said:
"The minister was a very nice man and we were very glad to see him. He was a little bit of a dandy, but we liked him."

PLAINTED WITH HIS FATHER.
A young man was the victim of a very amusing adventure on a street car going home from the theater the other night. The young man was sitting next to a young woman and she was looking at him with a very peculiar expression.

With her was a young man whose attention was very pleasing to her and another young lady. The first young lady thought the young man was showing too much devotion to the other young woman
and she determined upon a quiet revenge.

She sat down on the seat opposite the man, as far away from him as she could get. She was a very handsome middle-aged gentlewoman, with fine features and a kindly expression. The young man was looking at her with a very peculiar expression.

Presently the car stopped for the third time. The young man got up and motioned to the handsome middle-aged gentlewoman to get up and go with him.
"Father, I would like to present you to my daughter-in-law."

HIS TOOLS

A. T. McGregor Considers Them Exempted From Going to the Assignee.

This Stand Is Taken Under
the Law Exempting Mechanics Tools.

Judge Lewis Files Findings
in Some Cases and Makes Rulings.

The special term calendar was a light one in district court this morning. It contained twenty cases, and all except one were disposed of by the time for the noon adjournment. The one exception was the insolvency matter of A. T. McGregor, formerly the Duluth Boiler works.

McGregor was endeavoring to take advantage of the law which exempts to a mechanic the tools by which he gains his livelihood. He claims that he is a mechanic, and as such he is entitled to exemption for the machinery and tools in his shop. The point is an interesting one, and it was being warmly disputed before Judge Ensign at noon.

Judge Lewis overruled demurrers in the cases of S. E. White as guardian of Blanche and Frank Cross to recover $200 for two sixth interests in a lot in Portland condemned for the opening of Sixth avenue east and damages assessed at $6000. There have been several action over this property, and the city claims that the money was paid to M. B. Bingham, who has since died.

Judge Lewis denied a motion for a new trial in the case of the Hastings Malt company against the Iron Range Brewing company. He also ordered judgment for the plaintiffs in the cases brought by Hudson Wilson against John McKinley and A. E. Hume.

SOME FINDINGS FILED.
Judge Lewis filed his findings in the case of the heirs of John Glaspey against W. H. Bishop et al to clear title to land in sections 30 and 31-15-17. The findings are entirely for the plaintiff, and the heirs are adjudged to be the fee holders.

Some time ago Isaac Pearson sued George Randolph and Morris Thomas to recover $40 for labor and to have the lien declared. The case was brought by Randolph while under contract with Thomas, the owner. Randolph threw up the contract and Thomas continued it, and Pearson sued both for money due from Randolph.

Judge Lewis this morning filed findings directing judgment in favor of Pearson and against Randolph, but judgment to be given to Thomas, who is dismissed with costs. Judge Lewis holds that the plaintiff has no lien on the logs. Randolph, who is dismissed with costs, is held to be in default severs his connection with them.

MGR. SATOLLI COMING.
He Will Pass Through Duluth on Sept. 2.

Monsignor Satolli, the papal ablegate, accompanied by several distinguished Catholic dignitaries, will be in Duluth Sept. 2 on his way to the dedication of the Hill seminary in St. Paul. The party will arrive on the North West and will remain until 11:30 a. m. when they leave on a special Eastern Minnesota train for St. Paul. The dedication will take place next day.

Among the prelates in the party will be Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia; Archbishop Keane, of the Catholic university at Baltimore. The ablegate will be met here by Archbishop Ireland, J. Hill and other prominent Catholics, who will accompany the party to St. Paul.

The plan of entertainment while the party is in this city has been prepared and includes a banquet probably at the Spaulding. A meeting of the party will be held tomorrow at the Catholic Association hall at 4:30 p. m.

There will be about fifteen clergymen in the Satolli party and forty in all are expected to be here at the time of his arrival.

At a meeting at the Hill seminary yesterday, with Bishop McGilchrist in the chair, it was resolved by the priests of Duluth diocese that a public reception be given Monsignor Satolli on his arrival at Duluth. A committee on arrangements was appointed as follows: Very Rev. Dean Corbett, Rev. John Sank, Rev. Father Gamache, Grand Rapids, Rev. James Greene, ARKIN; Rev. Father Kosmerl, treasurer, and Rev. Father Mackey, secretary.

A Violent Maniac.
Augusta Leske was found insane before Probate Judge Ayer yesterday afternoon and was ordered to the insane asylum at Pergus Falls, where she was taken today by Mrs. Butcher and Deputies Hixon and Randell. She is extremely violent, and it required four strong men to take her to the probate court, though she is a slight and woman. Once there her shrieks and struggles kept everybody in hot water, and once with her maniacal howls she smashed one of Judge Ayer's new ink stands, spluttering the ink over the clothing of those near her. Her husband, who is a small man, fainted twice during the examination.

Years Later He Returned and Again Tackled the Wood.

"I reached home at last and pulled up in front of the old house. It looked just the same, but sadly out of repair. There were more weeds in the fence corners than ever before, and the crooked fence looked mighty poor. I hitched the horse to a post in front of the house, opened the gate and sneaked around to the rear porch. I looked for a moment, but there was no one there. It was in the same place as when I left it the day before. I pulled out my gun, and I verily believe it was the same ax. It was powerfully dull, but I pulled off my coat and sailed into the house. I found the door open, and I saw a man who had done nothing harder for six years than signing checks and opening mail, but I succeeded in splitting up the door with the ax. I pulled out my gun. Taking my coat on my arm I started for the house with the wood.

SUMMER

The Fading Season Gives Birth to Some Dress Novelties.

New Gown From Paris and a Few Millinery Suggestions.

Quite a List of Useful and Reasonable Notes of Fashions.

The summer is in full swing, and all the pleasure seekers and ease-loving people are surely finding both just and far away from the dusty, noisy city, breathing fresh air and showing their pretty costumes, says the New York Sun. The attractively attired matrons and maids, old and young, are pleasing one another's eyes with the lovely colorings of the fashionable silks and laces, the fluttering of endless ribbons and laces, and the pretty faces under the broad hats, while wear maidens are fitting here and there in picturesque gowns of dainty muslins and gingham and frilled caps and bonnets, each and all making a very enjoyable picture, and resting the weary ones of the street, tired of office and desk, just by allowing themselves to be seen.

At a lawn tennis tournament some lovely hats that will bear mention were noticed among the spectators. One was a broad white flannel decked with bunches of cherries on one side and fine black feathers on the other. Another, as pretty and surely a summer hat, was a pale green straw trimmed with white wings, green chiffon rosettes, and nasturtiums. The center of the latest novelties. One in a pale shade was trimmed with shades of green flowers, the petals of which were made of white muslin, and these were worn gowns of dainty, simple fashions, of lawn or mull, fluttering with innumerable ribbons of every shade.

Refreshing perfumes and lavender water may be carried with one at all times nowadays in the exquisitely cut bottles which come fitted into leather cases, fastened with metal clasps like a purse. Violet is the most popular perfume of the season. Though others have many devotees, the lingering perfume of the violet seems to give a light, dainty touch to the summer toilets that none other can supply.

Plaids are very fashionable, and will be all the fall. They are made now in cotton and silk, and every variety of gauze. Some very elegant plaid silk blouses are being devised by fashionable milliners to wear with tailor-made costumes. The coats and jackets of these suits are cut so as to show as much as possible of the plaid blouse. Brilliant Madras is much used for these waists, not the Madras gauze, but the genuine squares of yellow, red, and blue, striped and plaided in every conceivable design. One can hardly appreciate how well they look next to the bodices without seeing. The prettiest are made with plain red yokes, and the fancy pattern is gauged to the waist. The balloon sleeves are made of fancy plaid. They look exceedingly well with a black or dark blue skirt and coat, and equally well with a pique jacket and skirt of white or cream.

Buttons are surely growing in favor and their size is certainly on the increase. They are becoming quite a necessary accessory of a costume nowadays, and seriously increase the expense of the garments.

Flower ruffles are very much in vogue, and are made of the flowers used on the hat worn with the toilet, or entirely of one selected variety. One of the prettiest is made of the pink roses, tied under the chin with a large fluffy bow of pink chiffon, was very becoming and fairly new. These ruffles do not meet under the chin by three inches. The black chiffon ruche is perhaps more used, for unless one can replenish the flowers often they have a very bad habit of looking faded after being worn a very few times.

A dainty evening gown of white satin has silver spangled butterflies over it, and the drapery of white chiffon glitters all with the same ornaments. The green bodice, of the palest tint, has more butterflies on it, and a white chiffon collar, and white chiffon sleeves. In this butterfly time of the year such a costume is very appropriate and bewitching.

A taffeta silk gown of deep apricot green cut square, with the bodice and sleeves are draped with chiffon. The left shoulder is ornamented slantingly with the waist with a garland or trail of black velvet poppies, making a very pretty contrast.

A costume now is hardly finished without a lot of pretty fans. They keep dainty fingers busy, and convey many sweet messages without the bother of thinking how one is to express them properly. There are some old-fashioned and some modern copies of the small Empire fans mounted on plain or golden sticks. Exceedingly pretty fans are also made of plain and of painted gauze. Feather fans are not entirely out of fashion, though superseded by painted fans. The Louis XVI fan of black net is very effective with its painted medallion and silk-embroidered edge, and is the greatest favorite just at present.

Parasols are very much beloved, like the hats, and many of the hats seem nothing more than baskets of flowers. Hyacinths, nasturtiums and corn flowers seem to be the greatest favorites for these very showy hats. The dresses with which they are worn are simplicity itself, and the tendency of the best taste is to have them of one color. One hat, trimmed entirely with scarlet runners and a large bow of scarlet silk, of perfect taste worn with a plain full skirt and blouse waist, with a yoke of embroidery and full ruffle of embroidered edge falling over the full white puffed sleeves that reach to the elbow, and long white suede gloves. A hat headed with corn flowers, marguerites, and yellow poppies is worn with a black silk gown, with a yoke of corded plaid and the bodice of black muslinette de soie. The belt, stock collar, sleeves, and skirt are of cornflower blue taffeta silk. The sleeves are very full and pleated into the shoulder, and the lower half of the skirt is of straw, loaded with clusters of blue, white, richly with a gown of white white mull and a tiny zebra jacket of green velvet, richly embroidered.

French alpaca is very beautiful in texture, and is so glossy and silky and hangs in such beautiful folds that it is a delight to artistic eyes. A gown of white alpaca has Turkish embroidery of copper and gold on either side of the collar of white, organic and yellow lace. The plain portion of the flowered bodice is dull green silk, the collar dark red velvet.

Approves of these toilets, their cuts, textures and decorations, madam, who was mothering them, said:

"You see the only new material here is the black crepe, which, in reality, only a spotted barge crinkled some what like crepon. As yet, Doucet is the only one to make large gowns, but I, and madam swelled like the important frog in the fable, 'I shall meet challenge' in the new, fashionable for autumn and winter house gowns."

The new, hallies that I have seen at the manufacturers are very charming. Some are patterned like silk, with great bouquets, but there are others that are barred with little vines with stripes and other plain ones again in dim and sparkling jewel tones.

These will be my favorites, and I will combine them with lace, ribbon and velvet. There is a new material, which I have in my mind will be in old blue, with a Greek border in gold thread, embroidered by hand, at the skirt bottom.

"Yes," said madam, as she closed the door on all the wonderful things so soon to be borne to New York, "remember that chailles, winter chailles, are to be revived."

NEW PARIS GOWN

Even at this season of the year, when the mind is set on many dresses, says the New York World, there is still always something worth seeing. For instance, a new model from Paris which shows the revival of the waist of the same material as the skirt. The skirt is very wide, the graceful bodies ends at the waist and is trimmed with perpendicular lines of jet sequin embroidery, surrounded by circles of lace and pique between the throat and the bust.

The novelty in the sleeves is the turn-back cuff. The gown is made in light shot silk, the colors lavender and gold, and the full sleeves are finished off with perfect black lace. A waist of the same material is made in light shot silk, the colors lavender and gold, and the full sleeves are finished off with perfect black lace.

Skirts are cut with a double brim, the upper one being fluted and displaying ostrich tips between. The left skirt is trimmed with ostrich tips and smart bows of ribbon at the side and back.

The flowers of the kinds and many colors, how they cover the hats and how lovely they look in spite of the fact that the skirt is made in light shot silk, the colors lavender and gold, and the full sleeves are finished off with perfect black lace.

The coming skirt, according to French modistes, is of polle de chevre. Firm, resisting dust, incapable of being creased and showing color in pure shades than almost any other fabric, it deserves our good opinion. A pretty example of this is a gown of light shot silk, the colors lavender and gold, and the full sleeves are finished off with perfect black lace.

Never, perhaps, has there been a greater run on any item than on the blouse, which is still worn with a bunch of flowers falling over the crown seems sufficient adornment. For the greater part blouses are straight, or at least suggested the straight line. They may be very much covered in front, or turned up in the back. Anything is permissible, so long as they do not suggest the old-fashioned, cottage shape, high in front and sloping down to the ears in the back.

Artificial flowers, feathers and lace are all in the zenith of their popularity. Black feathers come foremost of all. Colored ones are not in it this season, though white ones are nestling among white or pale tinted lisse on snowy chignon hats. Black feathers rise up from the heliotrope straw hat of large dimensions, with a cluster of deep yellow roses tossed on to the brim. They arrange themselves in two parties on a large black hat, looking askance at a wide white or black and white bow, placed in front. They lift up crimped black chiffon on tan straw brim, allowed to fall over the crown and down to stray over the crown or other side, but they never allow themselves to be overlooked.

A medium sized compact hat, most becoming and suitable for full dress, is in fact black straw, having a double brim, the upper one being fluted and displaying ostrich tips between. The left skirt is trimmed with ostrich tips and smart bows of ribbon at the side and back.
